"We prefer not to be demoted of such offenses by a country such as Mr. Vishinsky's which practices slave labor, deportations and political executions."

STRICKEN ON BUS. LOCAL WOMAN DIES AT HUNTINGTON

Mrs. Rosetta Jackson Barney, 76, who was returning from Baldwin, Mich., to resume her residence here after an absence of a year, died in a hospital in Huntington on Nov. 8.

She was stricken ill on a Greyhound bus and died a short time after reaching the hospital, where surgeons said she suffered a cerebral hemorrhage.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Stratton and Shaw Mortuary, with burial in New Crown.

Mrs. Barney was born in Mississippi and had lived here from 1920 until a year ago when she went to Michigan. While here she lived with a son, Rev. Ernest Jackson, 511 N. Elder.

She is also survived by another son, Vernon Jackson, Chicago.

10 AHS STUDENTS WIN MEDALS IN 4TH SPEECH TOURNAMENT

By SYLVIA JACKSON

Ten students won declamatory medals Thursday, November 8 in a program that ended the Fourth Annual Speech Tournament, sponsored by the English Department of Crispus Attucks.

Winners and their selections were Gilbert Raylor, who gave "The Prodigal Son," from the Bible Luke 15; Carolyn Reed, "For Others," Anonymous; Taylor Baker, "The Butcher," by Robert Newman; Johnnie Walton, "Go Down Death," by James Weldon Johnson; and Patricia Smith, "The Angel and The Shepherd," by S. Brownie; Cecil Britton, selections from the "Rime of the Ancient Mariner," by Samuel Taylor Coleridge.

Others were Robert Woods, "The Butcher," Bessie Nelson, "Mary of Scotland," based on Schiller's drama; Julian Combs, "What Is A Boy?" by Alan Beck and Delores Parker, "Mark Antony's Funeral Oration" from Julius Caesar by William Shakespeare.

The winning sponsors' rooms and their Red Cross representatives are: First Place, Room 118, Fred Parker and Flossie Smith; Second Place, Room 375, James Spaulding, Clarence Baker and Raymond Stephenson; Third Place, Room 319-A, Patricia Ferguson.

Young Woman Dies of Injuries In Auto Accident

Injuries received in an auto accident five months ago proved fatal to Mrs. Mildred Hindman, 22 years old, 919 Carrollton avenue, on Monday.

The young woman died in General Hospital during an operation by which surgeons sought to restore use of her right arm which had suffered paralysis.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Nov. 15, at the Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Church of which she was a member. Burial was in New Crown. The Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home was in charge.

Mrs. Hindman was a passenger in a car driven by James C. Lusk, age 35, 831 W. 29th, when it collided with another car driven by Leroy Earl Harger, 26, R.R. 4, Noblesville, on June 9 at Fall Creek and N. Capitol avenue.

Lusk's car then glanced off a utility pole and struck the bridge, tearing away several feet of concrete railing, police reported.

Mrs. Hindman suffered both legs broken, fractured skull and internal injuries. At the time of the accident she was on her way to RCA-Victor Division, where she was employed as a tube welder.

Born at Humboldt, Tenn., she came here in 1943 and was graduated from Attucks high school.

Surviving are the mother, Mrs. Maggie Bills, city; father, William Duffey, Humboldt; stepfather, Herbert Bills, city; an aunt, Mrs. Lillie Hamry, city; a half-brother, Glomie Duffey, Humboldt; and five cousins.

money from her and one of her operators, Miss Mazell Robinson. "Give me some dough, I'm going to make my getaway," he explained.

The frightened ladies scraped together $57, waited excitedly until he quit blowing off about going to Pennsylvania, and called police after he ran out.

Officers Find Quarry Officers Bryant and James Gibbs, armed with a description, found their quarry in the baggage checking room at the station, ready to travel out of town by bus but not across town in a patrol wagon to the city jail.

Walker put up a fight, but the officers subdued the man preparatory to the trip to the lockup. As the officers marched their prisoner out to the wagon, Walker made a dash. Patrolman Bryant made a flying tackle but was brushed aside by the elusive fugitive.

Patrolman William Rapier, on traffic duty at Ohio and Capitol, executed a perfect blocking tackle and stranglehold and had Walker pinned helplessly.

Walker required some patching up at the hospital before being secured in a cell at the county jail.

Officer Bryant will be off duty for several days recovering from his hand injury.

E. 15th, sister of Mrs. Maggie Reeves. They are being held on bonds of $100 each pending a hearing in Municipal Court Room 3 on Nov. 23.

Going to Kentucky This is their story of what happened: Corporal Reeves and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Reeves, had secured bus tickets for Hopkinsville, Ky., to visit relatives over the weekend.

Corporal Reeves landed in California last month and was en route to Indianapolis Gap, Pa., Army center for reassignment with a few days' layover here.

The others in the group had accompanied Reeves and his sister-in-law to the bus station to see them off.

Reeves said he and his sister-in-law entered the bus and took the only seats vacant — those directly behind the driver's seat.

When the driver, who had clipped their tickets outside the door, entered, he demanded that the couple, Reeves and his sister-in-law, get out and take another bus for the reason:

"That seat belongs to a white man. There is another bus just behind this. Take that one."

They said Doyle re-validated their tickets, signing his initials. The couple, their story continues, got out while the others who had accompanied them to the station were still there, and searched for the other vehicle.

Reenter the Bus Not finding any such bus, they reentered Doyle's bus and demanded to be transported to their destination as shown by the tickets. At this point, the group asserted, the white man entered and seeing Reeves to be a soldier with insignia indicating Korean service, said:

"Go on. Take my seat, I'm glad to know you have been in the service of your country."

Reeves says he and his sister-in-law again got off the bus and Doyle yelled at them:

"I told you there is a bus behind and you must take that."

Words were exchanged and, the witnesses said, Doyle jumped out of his bus and struck Corporal Reeves over the head with a crank handle.

Reeves, they said, took the instrument from the driver and chased him across the platform.

Military Police interceded and took Reeves to General Hospital. Local police officers placed him under arrest after surgeons treated his wound.

The others were in their car on their way home when stopped by a squad of police who placed them under arrest.

Henry J. Richardson, Jr., aggressive attorney, has been retained to represent the Army man and his relatives.

Case Continued Judge Joseph M. Howard, now resigned, at a hearing last Saturday continued the case until Nov. 23.

Corporal Reeves has seen seven years of Army service and served in Korea from February to October of this year. He has received many coveted decorations and awards for meritorious service and bravery.

Representatives of the bus company acquainted with the incident and charged with handling employee-passenger problems could not be reached Thursday for their version of the incident.

times, "in self defense." "Instead of removing McCall from duty at least temporarily after the sworn testimony of Irvin to your representative, you left him in complete charge of the case of Irvin's safety. You also held a two-hour conference with McCall in a hotel in Jacksonville Thursday night."

"After this conference your representative, J. J. Elliott, testified in defense of McCall. All of this fits directly into the new pattern which has replaced the old type of lynching.

"You still have an opportunity to demonstrate whether or not the state of Florida believes in fair play and justice. Unless Sheriff McCall is replaced and your representative, J. J. Elliott is replaced and impartial persons are assigned duty of presenting this case to a grand jury the state of Florida will stand indicted and convicted of racial injustice in the eyes of the world and this with the complete sanction and approval of the state of Florida.

"We still prefer to believe that the state of Florida will not thus stand convicted. The answer is in your hands."

A CURIOUS THROG OF FRIENDLY FELLOW MEN: Nearly 1,500 people crowded the street around the Stuart Mortuary last Monday, moving up and down in the rain, as the last rites were held for "Minnie the Mocher" (Mrs. Minnie Gayton). The legendary outcast had her days as a curious throng of rain-soaked people or friendly fellow men gathered on the scene. Shown above (left) crowd assembled around the mortuary; (center), the legendary baby buggy in which Minnie hauled her "forage" gathered from various downtown market stands, hotels, clubs and other places; (right) her coffin is being lowered into the grave at New Crown cemetery.

PAJAMAS ON FIRE. MOTHER SAVES BOY FROM CRITICAL BURNS

Five-year-old Harold Weaklin was saved from injury by the prompt action of his mother, Mrs. Rosie Weaklin, 32, 732 W. North, in ripping the boy's pajamas from him when they caught fire Thursday morning.

Harold had got out of bed and was standing with his back to the stove, his model airplane in hand, when the seat of his pajamas caught fire.

When the Emergency Squad under Sgt. Harold Martin reached the home, the boy's nightclothes were almost completely destroyed, but Harold showed no marks of burns.

"Just a little frightened, but he'll be all right," his mother gratefully assured the officers.

some cities Negroes were serving through election.

"We are prepared to submit the names and qualifications of a number of Negro attorneys, both Republican and Democratic, for your consideration," Mr. Robinson stated.

Atty. Harden urged that the appointment be given as a matter of fairness and in the spirit of democracy that would open the doors of opportunity to all citizens alike.

Mr. Monger asked Governor

Schricker whether any of the top political leaders of either party had personally urged him to appoint a Negro judge.

Governor Replies

After a moment's reflection, Governor Schricker replied: "Only two such persons have urged appointment of a Negro to one of these judgeships. The Negroes suggested were Mercer M. Mance, juvenile court referee and a Democrat, and Rufus C. Kuykendall, Republican, deputy prosecutor."

Then Monger said: "It's the same old story. Governor, and we Negroes are tired of being given the runaround. Many white leaders have slapped us on the back with words of encouragement and told us to see you with promises they would also see you in wholehearted support of your appointment of a Negro as judge."

"I know what you mean about getting the runaround in politics," the Governor replied with a knowing smile.

"You won't give us the runaround, will you, Governor?" Monger asked.

"Certainly not. My record shows that and you all know I have made some precedent-making appointments of Negroes as members of important boards over the state. I can only say that I'm not sure this would be the right thing to do at this time."

"I made two regrettable mistakes—appointment of Judge Clark and Judge Howard—and don't want to make another."

"However, I promise I will give the matter serious consideration."

at "Minnie"—Mrs. Minnie Gayton—and her decrepit buggy.

Baby Buggy Back

The baby buggy, her inseparable companion on trips to the city market and commission houses where she was given fruits and vegetables and small sums of money by which she sustained herself, was there at the last moment.

It had been stolen by heartless thieves before her body, numbed from the icy cold and snow, was found early Nov. 6, in the yard at 753 Indiana avenue.

It reappeared mysteriously in the neighborhood of 12th and Senate avenue Sunday night. Police directed it to the funeral home for anyone who would claim it.

Reverend H. T. Toliver, pastor of Mt. Olive Baptist Church, officiated at the final rites assisted by Revs. Henry Green, Westview Baptist Church; J. G. White, assistant pastor of Bethel A.M.E. Church, and Rev. Vernon L. Anderson.

"Her life is a challenge to the Christian Church," declared Rev. Anderson. "How can people call themselves Christians and permit such unfortunates as Minnie to exist, alone, unbefriended, without ever a kind or encouraging word of offers to help in a spiritual as well as material way?" he asked.

"We, the people of this community, failed to make life better for her while she lived," declared Rev. Toliver.

Solos were given by Mrs. Toliver and Mrs. Susie Goodwin, with Mrs. Joseph H. Douglass, organist.

Condolences were read by Mrs. Nettie German, a friend of Mrs. Gayton.

Burial was in New Crown, a rite witnessed by two dozen still braving the cold, slashing rain. The many visitors at the Mortuary joined in the public contribution to a fund meeting the funeral expenses.

Daughter Contacted

Minnie's daughter, whose whereabouts were unknown to all but a few intimate friends, was contacted by Mrs. Luella Beach, 518 Agnes street, upon receiving reports of Minnie's death.

The daughter, Mrs. Ruth Stroud, Pax, W. Va., immediately sent a check for $250 to the funeral director as part payment of funeral expenses.

"I am too sick to come and cannot afford to attend my mother's funeral and pay expenses also. Please thank everyone for contributions and kindnesses in memory of my beloved mother. I had no idea she was in such dire need and distress, or I would have come to see her long ago," Mrs. Stroud wrote Mrs. Beach, whom she has known for the past 25 years.

Mrs. Stroud lived here until 19 years ago when she moved to West Virginia where she married a coal miner. She is aged herself and has a large family.

Burial Contributions

Following is a report, with acknowledgement of deep appreciation by the sponsors, of burial contributions:

Sunday School Sponsors Party At Seymour

SEYMOUR—The Sunday school of Bethel AME Church held its annual Halloween party in the basement of the church recently with Mrs. Pauline McDougal, superintendent; Cleve Lawrence, assistant superintendent; and Mrs. Lawrence in charge, assisted by Mrs. Minnie SeNour.

Prizes for the prettiest costume in the junior division went to Barbara Guden, and "Pete" McDougal took the prize for the ugliest costume. In the young people's division, Pat Booker won the prize for the prettiest costume, and Lonnie McDougal, the ugliest.

Mrs. Nelle Colbert and Claude Mitchell won prizes in the contest for adults. Mrs. Colbert won the door prize.

Miss Jean Booker was in charge of games for the children. At the close of the evening, guests were served ice cream, doughnuts, hot chocolate and cider at a table appropriately decorated with black cats, witches and Halloween candles.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mitchell and children, Duane and Michael; Mrs. Tillie Booker and children, Jean, Jo, Donna and Buddy; Mrs. Mary Lou Booker and daughters, Pat and Wanda; Mrs. Pauline McDougal and children, Pate, Betty, Lonnie and Jeffrey; Mrs. Blanche Smith and son, "Babe" Shelton; Mrs. Nelle Colbert and grandchildren, John and Nancy Richey; Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Lawrence; Mesdames Mamie Evans, Ollie Skelton, Emma Hood, Minnie SeNour, and Ada Maddox; Jackie Lewis, Mark Edmonds, Norma and Charles Phillips, Roland Morton and Sam Phillips.

DETT CHORAL CLUB DOES CONCERTS AT PERU, MADISON

The Dett Choral Club has opened its fall season with concerts at Peru and Madison. The Wayman AME Church, Peru, presented the club in a concert in the public high school there, and the Madison concert was also given in the high school auditorium.

The Modern Tones quartet of the choral group appeared in two concerts at Anderson. The quartet is a new group within the organization made up of club members.

ISANM Board To Meet Sunday

The executive board of the Indiana State Association of Negro Musicians will meet in the home of Herbert O. Jones, recording secretary, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Evelyn K. Marsh, first vice-president, will preside.

Plans are to be made for the 1952 convention of the group, to be held in Terre Haute, and the 1953 convention of the National Association of Negro Musicians, to be held here.

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. McGUIRE

"You follow me as I follow Christ" was the theme of a sermon given by Rev. J. E. Jones, pastor of the State Street Baptist Church at Bowling Green, Ky., during the fifteenth anniversary of Rev. J. H. Taylor, pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church there.

Rev. Jones stated that there were four types of "Christians," apart from the sincere one — those who openly fight the program of the minister, those who will tear up his program when the minister's back is turned, those who will sit down and take it easy, and those who withdraw from the activities of the church.

But, he said, pastors are authorized by God to lead their congregations, and the congregation should follow, just as the minister follows Christ.

A very timely response to the welcome was given by Mrs. A. P. Wilson, and remarks came from one of the city's prominent businessmen, a funeral director, J. E. Kuykendall. L. Woods was master of ceremonies.

Leaving here Saturday afternoon for Bedford, little did I realize that I would end up at Bowling Green, Ky. After a lovely dinner with Mrs. Ora West at Bedford, the party decided to visit relatives and friends. Well, they had the money, and I had the time, so off we went!

At Bowling Green the big pot was put in the little pot by Mrs. Lena Hudson, and did I eat. Mrs. Mary F. Brown was very gracious in showing us around. It seems the highway will give me a lift when nothing else will. I enjoyed first the grand weather, seeing many enjoying the temperature of 70 degrees in their shirt sleeves. Traveling west on Road 31, I noticed Fort Knox has an addition of several blocks of new buildings. Entering Elizabethtown, I was informed that it was the birthplace of the late pastor of Christ Temple, Elder R. F. Tobin.

My last chat was with Mrs. C. D. Porter, owner of a tourist camp, who is still holding her own. I think many of my readers will recognize some of the names mentioned.

While I was enjoying myself at Bowling Green, the convention committee of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church was having a grand bus trip to Hopkinsville. Mesdames Rosena McClung and Rose Nichols say they had one grand time. The pastor, Rev. A. D. Ranks, preached at Durett Baptist Church there.

Among the very fine programs and teas I missed out on was the patriotic autumn tea given at Phillips Temple CME Church with Mrs. Mary A. Bell as chairman.

Mrs. Madie Batts and her committee served tea to many guests in the home of the Indiana Federation of Colored Women's Clubs. Some of the city's best talent appeared on each of these programs.

Rev. J. T. Weeden, former pastor of Eastern Star Baptist Church now pastoring in Cleveland, will participate in a two-week meeting at Mt. Paran Baptist Church. Many eastsiders plan to attend. Dr. C. Henry Bell is pastor of the local church.

As a highlight of the "Hitting Broadway" production by the Little Theatre Group under direction of Mrs. Corean R. Hawkins in Crispus Attucks high school last Friday night, Miss Bessie McGee was crowned "Miss Broadway."

Miss McGee, candidate for the 33-X Guild of L. S. Ayres Company, was first place winner in the "Miss Broadway" contest, sponsored in conjunction with the show for benefit of the Indianapolis Recorder Charities, Inc., Christmas Cheer Fund.

Miss Doris Duncan, candidate from the RCA plant here, was given the queen's attendant hat. Miss Ruby Jo Nelson was the J. T. V. Hill Community Center candidate.

The original play, which afforded the large audience an evening of real entertainment, featured the best of local talent. Included in the cast were Jane Stuart, Bruce, Norma Covington, Hill, Natalie Stuart, Napoleon Richey, Marjorie Hoggans, Carolyn Russell, Johnny Landrum Jr., Tillman De-Gravenreid, Martha "Toddy" Cox, Mary Emma DuValle, Janet Simpson, Margaret Barbee, Billie Cook, Winona Ward Bruce, Howard Miller, Charles Wheeler, William Reeves, Frank Holloway, William Strong, Charles Barnes, Herbert Miller, John Wilson, and Franklin Morrison.

"Broadway" participants, in addition to the Misses Stuart and Cox, who were the Broadway stars, were professional guest artists, Flo Garvin, WBTM-TV artist, and Leonard and Leonard, professional dancers direct from Broadway.

Sharing the spotlight with them were Miss Velouisa Duncan, talented creative dancer; Delores Seath, Delores White, and Julia Reed White, winner of one of the "Search for Talent" contests sponsored by The Recorder. Piano music was furnished by Clara Reese Kirk.

Success of the production was assured by the energetic work of several committees. On the sponsoring committee were Drs. and Mmes. Charleston B. Cox, Lucian B. Meriwether, W. Weir, Stuart, and Joseph H. Ward, Messrs. and Mesdames Frank R. Beckwith, Cleo W. Blackburn, Theodore Boyd Sr., Peter B. Brown, Arthur D. Dodson, Sea H. Ferguson, Henry A. Fleming, Bertram E. Gardner, J. Walter Harris, Flenord H. Hutchinson, Mercer M. Mance, Horace H. Page, Fred Schatz, Marcus C. Stewart, George J. Thompson, and Charles D. Walker, and Mesdames Madeline M. Allen, Stella W. Hatch, Blanche B. Horner, Kathryn D. Maye, and Edythe R. Walker.

The public relations committee included Mesdames Helen V. Basch, Meredith Nicholson, G. B. Ransom, Johnnie H. Simpson, and Amos A. Thompson and the Misses Zenobia Fisher, Anna P. Stout, and Phyllis W. Waters.

In charge of properties, lights, and settings were Mesdames Vir-della Creighton, Overa W. Harris, and Lucy C. Standard and Messrs. Scotty Scott, Joseph Stuart, and Charles Wheeler.

The music committee included Mrs. Bertha G. Howard, Miss Clara Reese Kirk, and Messrs. Harry R. Campbell and Norman L. Merri-field. In charge of publicity were Mesdames Johnnie W. Simpson and Amos A. Thompson and Messrs. Richard C. Henderson and Fred Schatz. Responsible for the programs were Messrs. George J. Thompson, Howard S. Filmore, R. A. Warren, and George O. White.

Mrs. Bernard Brent was chairman of the patrons committee, which included Mesdames Herbert Alexander, Helen Bailey, Odessa Jones, Nettie King, Anna Kuykendall, Elizabeth Lawrence, Hope Phillips, Leon Simms, and Samuel Vaughn, and the Misses Vir-gie Dunville, Althea Gant, Geneva King, and Clara Reese Kirk.

The ticket committee, of which Mrs. George I. Temple was chairman, and Mrs. Taylor Seath, associate chairman, included Mesdames Buford Hazel, Elsa C. Jackson, Johnny Landrum Sr., Charlotte Heywood Murray, William R. Sargent, and Ida Fields Southern and the Misses Elsie M. Clark and Pansy M. Clay.

Assisting as ushers were Joan Hawkins Anderson, Patricia Lewis Driver, Mattie Louise Ferguson, Phyllis Milton Scott, and Rebecca Hall White, all original members of the Little Theatre Group.

Listed as honorary members were Mrs. Vivian W. Marbury, original sponsor of the group; Mrs. Georgia Dodson, past president of the School No. 87 PTA; Mrs. Wallace Waugh, president of School No. 87 PTA; Dr. and Mrs. W. Weir Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schatz, Mrs. Eugenia D. Asbury, the Misses Zenobia Fisher and Phyllis W. Waters, and Dr. Guy L. Grant.

Northside Church Nurses Unit Has Anniversary

The Nurses Unit of First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis, celebrated its fourth anniversary last Sunday with a special program. The anniversary sermon was preached by Rev. C. J. Dailey, and music was rendered by the St. Paul choir and missionary singers.

Mrs. Nettie Halsell gave the welcome address, with the response being given by Mrs. C. J. Dailey. Special solos were rendered by Rev. and Mrs. G. Tolbert and Mesdames Charles Burnett and James Young.

Nurses from Mt. Moriah, Mt. Carmel and First Baptist Church, West Indianapolis, were present for the celebration. Mrs. Blanche "fardman, chairman of the state nurses' unit, was a special guest.

Officers of the church group are Mesdames Josephine Burns, president; M. Johnson, vice-president; I. Tolbert, second vice-president; Ruth Woods, secretary; E. Barratt, assistant secretary; H. Halsell, corresponding secretary; L. Anderson, chaplain; M. Young, treasurer; and L. Ervin, M. Shobe, and A. Yancey, ways and means committee.

Rev. F. F. Young is pastor of the church.

OES Group Plans Charity Play

Mrs. Pearl Willis will present members of the OES of the West Chapter No. 45, Order of the Eastern Star, in a play "Ethiopia at the Bar of Justice" in the auditorium of Crispus Attucks high school on Friday night, November 30, at 8. The play, depicting Ethiopia's efforts to obtain justice from the world at large through centuries, is dedicated to the advancement of world brotherhood.

Main roles in the production will be taken by Richard Brand, Paul Carter, Miss Kay Statler, Lewis Williams, and Mesdames Clo Woolridge, Inez Willingham, Mollie Davis and Zelma Highbaugh.

In the supporting cast will be Mesdames Lenoir Maholland, Johnnie Davis, Leah Gill, Louise Richardson, Mattie Anderson, Eva Tunstall, Mary Clemons, Bessie Harrison, Nellie Porter, Fannie Shannon, Anna Higgins and Lorraine Horne, and Messrs. Thomas Cole, George Woodruff, Herman Davis, Paul Johnson, Bennie Helms, Claude Hopkins, Alphonso Willis and Maynard Gill. Mrs. Teresa S. Sanders will be pianist.

Proceeds from the affair will be used for the chapter's scholarship fund and for Christmas charity. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the chapter.

BOYS ENJOY TURKEY: Members of the A. Phillip Randolph Boys Club were guests of honor at an elaborate turkey dinner given by their sponsor, Houston Chandler, and a group of women at Emmanuel Baptist Church recently. The boys enjoyed a brief program featuring as speakers several well-known civic leaders of the community. (See story.)

Church Groups' Members Surprise Georgia Henderson, Ill At Home

Mrs. Georgia E. Henderson, who has been ill in her home, 755 West New York street, for several weeks under doctor's care, had two very pleasant surprises last week.

On Monday evening the Stewardess Board of Jones Tabernacle A.M.E. Zion Church, of which she is a member, met with her. After the completion of business, the vice-president, Mrs. Odessa Brewer, served delicious ice cream and cookies. Mrs. Henderson received the guest boys.

The women were all pleased to note that their fellow member was improving rapidly.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Henderson received a phone call from Mrs. Roberta K. Armstrong, advising her that Mrs. Armstrong and her Sunday school class would worship in Mrs. Henderson's home Sunday morning.

So, it came as quite a surprise when, in addition to Mrs. Armstrong, Mesdames Roberta Venev and Christine Youngblood, also teachers at the Jones Tabernacle Sunday school, arrived with their classes, including 24 youngsters.

The little tykes entered into their services singing "This Is Sunday Morn," after which five of them repeated Bible verses from memory. Following another song and the Lord's Prayer, the children closed their devotionals by singing "Jesus Wants Me For A Sunbeam."

The children presented Mrs. Henderson with a bowl of beautiful fruit, and she in turn, through her cousin, Mrs. Lucille Adams, acting as hostess, served the happy little group chocolate and cookies, assisted by the three teachers.

Mrs. Henderson pointed out: "These young mothers are trying

The Elizabeth Carter Council, under the leadership of its president, Mrs. Maud Robinson, held a successful Women's Day program in the Capitol Avenue Seventh-Day Adventist Church last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Julia Jefferson and her co-workers had planned a particularly interesting program, including selections by the Mt. Paran Baptist Church usher board chorus, the Jericho Singers, a reading by little M. Perry, solos by Mrs. Helen Laster, Marcella Tate, and Elizabeth Hayes; reading by Robert Smith, and benediction by Rev. Russell Bates.

Principal speaker was Miss Millicent Hoffman, Lafayette, president of the Indiana Federation of Colored Women's Clubs. Talking on "The Art of Remembering," she pointed out that we should not forget to remember to train our children properly and know how to conduct ourselves.

She said we should remember the good things and let the bad go. "Let the dead past bury its dead. Press forward and upward, using God as your guiding light." She also pointed out that we should not forget to "let love give service and grow in grace."

The Lend-A-Hand club will meet with Mrs. Anna Harrison, 845 W. 27th street, Monday. Governmental departments will be discussed. The club is sponsoring a turkey dinner this week in the state club home.

The Malleable Glee club will meet Saturday in the club home. Mrs. Lula Hodge is president.

CLIFFORD SeNOUR HONORS WIFE ON BIRTHDAY

SEYMOUR — Clifford SeNour entertained a few friends recently in honor of the birthday of his wife, Mrs. Minnie SeNour. A delicious turkey dinner was served, and Mrs. SeNour received many presents.

Among guests were Miss Versie Piper and Messrs. Arthur Booker and Elmer Golins, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morgan, Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Ware and Mr. and Mrs. Zebadiah Johnson, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Ned Steiger, St. Louis; Lt. and Mrs. Willie Stewart, Washington, D. C.; and Mr. and Mrs. William SeNour, Indianapolis.

Among local guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Pennybaker, and Mrs. Ollie Skelton.

Clarence W. Stewart, outstanding layman at Bethel A.M.E. Church, is ill in his home, 342 West 26th street.

Panel Discussion Highlights Open House As School No. 42 Observes Education Week

Chatting with the FAC

By ELSA JACKSON

At Monday night's regular meeting of the Federation of Associated Clubs, Inc., Dr. D. Patterson of the Morgan Health Center, a representative of the U. S. Public Health department, spoke briefly explaining the ten-point examination being offered at the center. Examinations are made by appointment only and are free for everyone over sixteen years of age.

Mrs. Roslyn Richardson made a dynamic address to a very attentive audience. She was invited to make a return visit.

The FAC is observing its fourteenth anniversary this month, and every person present was given the privilege of highlighting FAC activities. Starling W. James, president, was commended highly for Exchange teachers, spending this year in Indianapolis schools, served as panel members at the open house PTA meeting of School No. 42 Thursday night during the celebration of National Education Week.

Members of the panel were Miss Mollie Smoker, Winchester, England, who is now teaching at School No. 33; Miss Jane Fraser, Elgin Marayshire, Scotland, now at School No. 2; and Mrs. Momoe Furuya, Honolulu, Hawaii, School No. 39.

Mrs. Frank W. Hamilton, chairman with Mr. Hamilton of the World Citizenship Committee of the Indianapolis Council of Parents and Teachers, introduced the panel. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton spent last year in Bradford, England, where he served as exchange teacher on the staff of a boys' grammar school.

Mrs. Hamilton also told about Pestalozzi, the children's village in Switzerland, where war orphans from many nations live and study together. She showed a small model of the village.

Devotions were given by children of the week-day religious education class, and a social hour followed. Mrs. Amos Ellis is PTA president, and Mrs. Hazel B. Johnson is school principal.

The Mothers Study Group of the school is having a series of meetings on "How the Home and School Work Better Together." The third meeting in the series will be held next Tuesday morning at 9:30.

"What Kind of Report the School Should Expect" will be discussed, and also "What Kind of Report the Home Should Expect." Mesdames Ellis and Johnson will lead the discussion.

School No. 24 will present a health program at the next PTA meeting, to be held Wednesday afternoon at 2. The speaker will be Mrs. Theresa Samuels, nutritionist at the Morgan Health Center.

The Mothers Study Group will hear a lecture on "Home Mechanics and Repairs" at the group's next meeting, November 26, at 1:30.

The theme of each PTA meeting of the PTA of School No. 36 was scheduled for Thursday night of this week, with Rev. Frederick Falkenroth, pastor of Our Saviour Lutheran Church, as speaker for the open house meeting, held in conjunction with National Education Week.

Committees are working on the gala "Family Night," to be held Friday, November 30, at the school. A program of interest for the entire family is planned. Mrs. Elizabeth Hayes is PTA president, and Mrs. Ruby Langford is principal.

A. Phillip Randolph Boys Club Enjoys Annual Turkey Dinner

It was a gala night on Tuesday, October 30, for members of the A. Phillip Randolph boys club, when they were honored at their annual turkey dinner by their organizer, Houston Chandler, and a group of women at Emmanuel Baptist Church.

The dinner, prepared by Mesdames Mary Pope, Janie Tinsley, Christine White, and Elizabeth Watkins, all parents of members, was served at tables decorated in a Halloween motif and centered with bowls of cut flowers. Halloween decorations were also in evidence throughout the dining room. In charge of decorations were Mesdames Mary Grass and Georgia Hamler.

Atty. Patrick E. Chavis, associate of Atty. Henry J. Richardson Jr., made a fine address to the boys and their guests. He started off by saying he was used to talking to people much older than the boys "and much weaker," and closed congratulating Mr. Chandler on his fine work with the boys.

In an effective talk, Wendell Hutchinson reminded the boys to stick to the church and the YMCA. Mr. Hutchinson represented the Eastside Christian Center. Also appearing on the program were Mrs. Mary P. McGuire, president of the Eastside Better Business and Civic League; Rev. Roy Hatcher, pastor of the church; and several of the boys' parents.

Mr. Chandler, who has served in the Pullman service for many years and is a great admirer of A. Phillip Randolph, president of the International Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, has been largely responsible for securing membership in the YMCA for many boys. He says he looks forward to seeing some of those boys become such outstanding men as Mr. Randolph and Dr. Ralph Bunche.

Teen Talk

BY THE SNOOPER

Yessir, the Skatarena really has been jamming back something terrible, and the manager, Emerson Murphy, is doing a splendid job of keeping comfortable, safe, and sanitary. The grand opening was Friday, November 9, and someone got a chance to win a new pair of skates. I expected a sell-out crowd, and I see the skaters didn't let me down. So I say "right" for them.

And get this—they also have some delicious hot dogs and sodas to quench your hunger and thirst. Let's go on out and be cool.

I hear a new club, the Skating Skyline, has been organized and is a credit to the Skatarena. How's about getting more clubs like it, and perhaps a little contest with Rollerland might be arranged. I think it would be a good idea, and I personally would take an interest in it. Now, what do you say about that?

Well, let's let the Skatarena roll on and see what's with the guys and gals. Jimmy Denny is now talking that divine lingo to none other than Norma Edelen, as he is somewhat attracted to the babe. I say a wig deal about to come off, so freeze on the play, Jimmy.

Rita Bradley, is it true that you are on sides with Mr. Bernard Lowery? If so, you had better stick close to him, as he is a real playboy, especially near the net season. Rudy Valentine and Wilma Lucas are now making eyes at each other, and I hear the love-bug is beginning to bite both of them. So now they are scratching away at each other.

James Lacey, how did you ever get a chance with Geraldine Gibson so quick? I heard you had eyes for her quite some time ago, so now you had better stay with her. She is a real cute babe.

Ruth McKinney and Robert Perine are getting along real nicely and intend to keep it that way. That's real tidy, you know.

Here is a clean-cut deal: Margaret Young seems to have captured Willie Gardner's heart, but her competition, Barbara Hart of Shortridge, is now about to make her bid for a small portion of his heart. So watch out, Margaret, she is a real cute babe. Believe me when I tell you.

Tony Goodrich and Myrna Floyd still seem to be floating on the little white cloud that cried down by the river, but don't float away. Kids, if you get what I am throwing on you.

I see Henry Cain has just moved Charles Thompsons on out of the deal with Helen Baker and made his play for her affections. She wholly approves of it. William Smith has already thrown a complete pass in Esther Yowell's direction, and she made the real touchdown, scoring his heart as her goal.

Ronnie Ryan, I see you are now pulling a boner with Shirley Jordan, but what happened to Roberta Garner? Is she out of the picture completely? If so, why? Well I know the reason, because she was a girl of my dreams at one time, but that is no more, so I am wise to the happenings.

Ollie Moore seems to be wiggling himself so terribly nice with Doris Garnett and doesn't intend to let anyone take her away from him. That's the spirit, my boy. let proving to be a most outstanding leader.

Nominations of officers for 1952 were made. Sample ballots will be sent to all affiliated groups. The election will be held at the December meeting.

Two weeks remain in the membership drive, with report meeting to be held each Monday evening of this month. A concerted effort will be made to contact every organized group in the city. You may call or mail in your membership, and you may also call the FAC office, WA. 0058, if you desire a speaker for your group.

Dr. Charles Watkins of the Allen Temple, A.M.E. Church, Kokomo, will be speaker at the December meeting.

The FAC paper is to be reinstated with D. W. Hector as business manager and yours truly as assistant editor.

Mrs. Thelma Harrington has been appointed chairman of a group to make a study on the Junior FAC.

Clothing collected for the needy in Haiti and Kingston, Jamaica, has been boxed and is on its way. The public responded well to the appeal, and many useful garments were received.

The public relations committee, of which Mrs. Frances Howard is chairman, will have a fun fest in the Aron Room next Tuesday night. A turkey will be given away. The public is invited.

Miss Nora Williams, chairman of the ways and means committee, says that tickets are out for the November 30th card party. Plenty of nice prizes will be offered.

Mr. James will give a travelogue and show moving pictures of his trip to the Cape Verde area to the seventh and eighth grade pupils at School 26 Friday morning. He made a talk to the local chapter of the National Association of Colored Girls in the home of Mrs. Blanche Cross last week.

Mrs. Goldie Jones, Fort Wayne, has extended a special invitation to Mr. James and the tourist group to appear in a travelogue and exhibit for the Daughters of Isis, Court No. 121, on December 1 or 2.

The Camp Atterbury hostesses met in the club home last Friday night.

Mrs. Helen Jones, St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. John McAllister, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moss, Dayton; and Dr. and Mrs. George Watkins and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. James of this city have made reservations already for the 1953 European trip.

The Twelve Mo's elected officers in the home of Charles Kurtley last week. They are Messrs. Frederick Douglass, president; Neal Durante, vice-president; J. Larkins, recording secretary; Andrew Farmer, financial secretary; David Middleton, treasurer; Charles Kurtley, sergeant-at-arms; and Edward L. Patterson, parliamentarian. Other officers will be appointed later.

The Jackson Park Civic club will meet with Mrs. Rose Tolliver, 2207 Sheldon street, Friday night at 8. Mrs. Dorothy Terry is president.

Included on the club calendar for the week are meetings of the West End Rod and Gun club and the Northside Social club on Thursday night of this week; the Scorpions, Big Wigs and Amicus glee club, Saturday night; Gay Gayettes tea Sunday afternoon from 4 to 7; educational committee on Monday at 4, and on that evening the meetings of the Gay Caballeros, Snakes, and membership drive committee; the Enright and public relations club fun fest Tuesday; and on Wednesday the FAC hostesses will meet at 6:30 for the trip to Camp Atterbury Service Club No. 2, and the Modern Matrons will meet.

IN THE ARMY: Thomas E. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Smith, 1411 East 16th st., was inducted into the army from New York in September, 1950, and is now stationed at Fort Ord, Calif., as a dental "X-ray" technician.

"Lone Ranger," 12, Corrals Coyuse— "Hospital Daze"

Mullen Shaw, a Lone Ranger fan and long-distance admirer of the phantom horse, Silver, jumped for joy, a bright gleam flashing in his eyes as he spied a big white horse trudging through an alley near his home at 327 Blake street early last Sunday morning.

With high hopes of a thrilling adventure, the 12-year-old fun-seeker climbed aboard, slapped his nag gently with a soothing "giddyap" and was off.

Old Dobbin caught the spirit of the thing and did all right in imitation of the great horse Silver until he came to the Belt railroad tracks.

Used to the more convenient gait of a junk-wagon drudge, the nag stumbled and fell, pitching the adventurous young rider forward. Passersby pulled him from under the kicking animal for another ride, to General Hospital for treatment of a broken leg, brain concussion—Old Dobbin was quite a chunk of senile horse-flesh—and internal injuries.

'All Shoulders to the Wheel,' NAACP Urges

By JESSIE JACOBS

Wouldn't you give a few hours of your time to a neighbor who needed help badly? Most people would. Then, would you give a few hours work to help millions of our people throughout the country?

How, do you ask? By giving the pay you receive for several hours work to the NAACP. This is the organization that works every day of the year for the protection and advancement of your friends, your relatives and yourself.

The money you give to the NAACP isn't a contribution; it is an investment in your future and the future of your children. It is insurance in the kind of America we want in time to come.

Yes, progress has been made; but, at what cost? We have more liberty and opportunity than our fathers and mothers; however, we must not be smugly satisfied and forget there is much to be gained.

Ours is an obligation to those who pioneered against a stone wall of prejudice. Ours is an obligation to those of the younger generation who look to us to make their way less humiliating, less troublesome.

Every shoulder must carry its share if the job is to be done. The NAACP needs your shoulder now. Take out a membership today at the NAACP office 510 N. West street, or call LI. 7124 and someone will visit your home.

not thyself be departed from thy fairest love.

Margaret Anderson and Sam Russ are still strong with each other and have been that way for quite a while. Stay with it, my dear friends. Here is a real devastating Florida peach: Robert Baugh and Maxine Caldwell are still freezing on the joint even though it is cold outside, and she hates to go, but you know mothers. During the winter everything must be real copasetic, you know so just play it smooth, good buddy.

What is this rumor about Gale Cobb being head-over-toes for Larry Reed? If that be true, then they are the perfect couple and a lovely example for all of you teen-agers in puppy love. . . Clarence Warner, what happened to you and Yvonne Ross? The reason I ask is that I found out that Betty Brown is really gone for you.

Well, I see Cubby Carr is still the man with the golden touch like King Midas, only his love is more valuable than gold to Annette Thompson. At least, that's what she said.

Sonny Hackleman still seems to be the burning flame in such cold weather in the affectionate life of Donna Kilgore. . . Delores Reynolds, when are you going to wake up to reality and find out that a certain stud is just wild over you and waiting patiently for you to give him that break that he really wants so badly. You know to whom I am referring, don't you?

I hear the Walker Casino is still jamming back every Saturday night and is crowded from front to back so you can hardly dance. Let's make it so you can't dance at all, just stand and get your kicks from the terribly platters they have to offer and keep from the cold air for about four hours.

Say, there seems to be quite a bit of talk about the "four dollar bills," who can't do anything but spend money on the girls. Right, Albert Byrd, Chester Walker, Bobby Jordan, and Lee Arthur Nixon? Marlene Madden, do you remember the boy who was talking to you at the Skatarena last Saturday and was holding hands while you were skating? Well, he really likes you a lot and was just kidding about what he said he was going to do, so please forget it and give him a chance, will you? Gosh, thanks a lot, sweetheart.

I think this is enough talk to make your eyes blink a while, so I say check up 'til next week, and I am not kidding about being here every week.

INFANT FORTE

John Purdy

Funeral services for John Purdy, age 62, 821 S. Capitol avenue, were held at the Craig Funeral Home on Friday, Nov. 16. The burial was in New Crown cemetery. He died at his home Tuesday, Nov. 13. He was a native of Lebanon, Ky., and had lived here 35 years. He was a former employee of E. C. Atkins & Company.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Lois Purdy; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Porter and Miss Pauline Purdy; two sons, John Purdy, Jr., and David Purdy, Oceanside, Calif.; a grandson, Anthony Purdy, and a sister, Mrs. Hattie Hall, Lexington, Ky.

CITY COAL DEALERS SPONSOR ALL-EXPENSE TRIP TO MIAMI

Entries in the "All-Expense Trip to Miami" sponsored by the Coal Heating Service of Greater Indianapolis, Inc., must be in, or postmarked no later than December 20.

Entry blanks may be obtained from the office of the organization at 500 Board of Trade Building and the contest closes at midnight, December 20. Persons competing must fill out entry blanks in 50 words or less telling why "Coal heat is better heat" and also supply the name of the family coal dealer.

The sponsors of the contest note that there are a hundred and one reasons why coal heat is better heat. First of all, there is a known coal reserve sufficient to fill our needs for the next 3,000 years—quite a contrast to other fuels with limited reserves. Also, coal heat has been proven to be healthier heat—families who heat with coal seem to have a greater resistance to colds and other illnesses. It should be remembered that your coal heat does not depend upon power lines and pipe lines.

Even completely automatic stokers may be operated by hand in the event of a power line breakdown which would cripple other so-called "automatic fuels." Then again, there is no disagreeable odor with coal heat. Finally, coal heat is automatic when used in conjunction with the latest automatic coal burning equipment. These are just a few of the many reasons why coal heat is better heat. Remember, most important factors in this contest.

CONTEST RULES

This contest is open to all residents of Marion County, Indiana, over 18 years of age, dwelling in a unit using coal as fuel. Employees and officials of the local coal industry will not be eligible.

Pres. Truman Vetoes Jimcrow School Bill

By ALICE A. DUNNIGAN

WASHINGTON (ANP)—President Truman last week killed by pocket veto a federal aid to education bill because it required that segregation be perpetuated in a group of schools on Federal property which are now operating successfully on an integrated basis.

A bill dies by "pocket veto" if the President fails to sign it into law within 10 days after it has been passed by Congress.

The bill provided for the construction, maintenance, and operation of elementary and secondary schools in localities where defense activities of the federal government have created unusual burdens.

The President admitted that the bill would have been meritorious, had Congress not included the provision requiring such schools to conform to state laws. It is clear that the purpose of this proposed change, said Mr. Truman, was "to require that schools operated solely by the federal government on federally owned land, if located in any of the 17 states, shall be operated on a segregated basis."

"Backward Step" Cited

In his memorandum of disapproval, the President pointed out that this proposal, if enacted into law, "would constitute a backward step in the efforts of the federal government to extend equal rights and opportunities to all our people."

While America is assuming the role of world leadership by seeking to unite people of great cultural and racial diversity, "we should not impair our moral position by enacting a law that requires discrimination based on race."

Declaring that old discriminations are being discarded step by step, President Truman stated that the federal government must not adopt new ones.

Declaring that this provision was "an important departure from national policy," and that it was added to the bill during the closing days of the first session of Congress, the President expressed hope that the matter will be reconsidered early in the next session.

He said he would like to see Congress enact without the Jimcrow provision a law to provide the school aid so urgently required in critical defense housing areas.

After 14 Days As "Dead Man" Soldier Lives

By CARTER JEWEL
FORT EUSTIS, Va. (ANP)—A Fort Eustis soldier last week entered his 14th day of semi-consciousness since his heart stopped beating for four minutes during a recent hernia operation.

Although Pvt. Theodore McDaniels of Pensacola, Fla., still is on the critical list, doctors at the United States Army hospital here said last week he definitely would live.

Three weeks ago the young transportation corps soldier was undergoing an operation when it was noted that his breathing and heart had ceased.

An incision was made in the soldier's chest and Lt. Wesley Spich, the surgeon, began massaging the heart by hand. A tube also was inserted into the patient's lung supplying needed oxygen.

Some 14 days later, hospital officials reported they were pleased with the soldier's condition. They said that he now is able to recognize voices, react to commands, and could determine pain.

They added that he was in perfect physical condition and they were waiting for him to say his first words.

N. Y. Woman Wins $140,000 On Irish Sweepstake Race

NEW YORK (ANP)—Mrs. Madeline Skinner, 37, was simply amazed but happy over the news that her sweepstakes ticket on the Flying Moment won one of the first prizes of $140,000. The registered nurse, who resides at 127 W. 137th St., Harlem, told reporters:

"I won't believe it until I get the check in my hands and then I won't believe it."

Mrs. Marjorie Handerson, 37, of 137 W. 144th St., who held a stub on third place winner, Brunette, was equally as elated. She will receive $28,000.

Mrs. Skinner, who has been a nurse for four years, is the wife of an assistant foreman in the city sanitation department. They have a young adopted daughter.

Tax officials estimated that the federal government will take between $75,000 and $85,000 of Mrs. Skinner's winnings and the State between $8,000 and $9,000.

KOKOMO CARVER CENTER AID JOINS LOCAL Y STAFF

Fred Randall, a native Hoosier and former director of the Carver Center at Kokomo, became a member of the staff of the Senate Avenue YMCA recently. He succeeds Theodore Boyd who recently joined the staff of the Evanston, Ill., YMCA organization.

He was reared in Muncie and is a graduate of Ball State Teachers College with a degree in physical education. He has had special training in handicraft and has become very popular with boys of the organization. He is married and the father of three children.

MORTICIAN WINS COUNCILMAN SEAT AT LOUISVILLE

LOUISVILLE (ANP)—W. W. Beckett, 40-year-old funeral director, became the first Negro Democrat elected to office in a city-wide race when returns came in from last week's election here. Beckett's election to the Board of Aldermen assured an all-Democratic board, and marked the second time a colored man had been elected in a city-wide election.

This was his second attempt at being elected to the Board of Aldermen. He was unsuccessful in 1945.

Omegas Plan Achievement Week Program

WASHINGTON, D. C. (ANP)—National Negro Achievement Week will be celebrated here by the Omega Psi Phi fraternity, Nov. 11 to 17, it was announced this week by Dr. Matthew J. Whitehead.

The celebration gets under way on Armistice Day with a broadcast over the "Americans All" radio program. Other highlights include a public program at Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel at Howard University and a closed banquet at Baldwin Hall. The banquet will honor the founders of Omega Psi Phi fraternity.

The fraternity has a membership of more than 15,000 men. It was founded at Howard University in 1911 by several college professors in company with the late Dr. Ernest E. Just, eminent biologist.

Its membership includes some of America's outstanding citizens. The living founders to be honored at the banquet are the Rev. Edgar Love; Dr. Oscar Cooper and Prof. Coleman.

Grant's Grandson Bans Pose With Confederate Flag

NEW ORLEANS (ANP)—Maj. Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, III upheld the name of his grandfather when he refused to pose for a picture holding the Stars and Bars of the Confederacy here recently.

The general gave as his reason: "I am refusing because I believe this recent craze for displaying the Confederate flag on automobiles and elsewhere is cheapening the flag of a people who had a sincere and deep conviction."

"And will one of you reporters please tell me why they insist in calling the Civil War, the War Between the States?"

Gen. Grant said that the South should hold nothing against his grandfather who was very careful to write the terms of surrender so that officers would retain their side arms and so that Gen. Robert E. Lee would not be humiliated by having to part with his sword.

YW AID TO SPEAK FOR LIFE BUILDERS AT SENATE AVE. YMCA

Mrs. Ruth Bell, secretary of girls at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, will be the speaker Sunday for the Life Builders Club at Senate Avenue YMCA. She will relate a Thanksgiving story. All boys are invited to attend.

GUEST OF LIBERIAN GOVERNMENT: Inez Dickens Gumbs, New York, is shown on her departure recently for a four-month jaunt through the capitals of Europe. She will also visit Africa, and will be a guest of the Liberian Government during inauguration ceremonies for President Tubman at Monrovia in January.

St. Louis Dental Group Votes to End Jimcrow

ST. LOUIS (ANP)—The St. Louis Dental Society voted last week to admit Negro dentists as members of the organization.

The 231 members who voted in a closed meeting at the Hotel Statler decided 151 to 80 to invite colored dentists to become fully accredited members of the organization.

Dr. Max Kornfeld, president of the society, supported the measure, but as presiding officer was not allowed to take part in the debate which lasted for two hours. Dr. J. Floyd Alcorn introduced the formal motion, and it was seconded by Dr. Benno E. Lischer, dean emeritus of the Washington University School of Dentistry.

Nine other speakers strongly endorsed the proposal. They included Dr. Otto W. Brandhorst, dean of Washington University School of Dentistry and president-elect of the American Dental Association; Dr. Lee Roy Main, dean of St. Louis University School of Dentistry, and Dr. Edgar H. Keys.

NAACP Exposes "Cold Lynching" in Florida

Leader of CIO Speaks for Civil Rights

WASHINGTON, D. C. (ANP)—In his report to the 13th annual convention of the Congress of Industrial Organizations meeting in New York last week, President Philip Murray declared that "America deserves a better Congress than it has had this year."

Among the many important legislative issues mentioned in his 79-page report was President Truman's fair deal program which he claimed "has been ignored by the dominant majority of petty politicians who control, regardless of party label, the 82nd Congress."

Declaring that the CIO has committed itself without reservation to "a program of liberal, forward-looking, non-partisan political action" President Murray stated that his organization will continue to support effective political programs and candidates who have, on the record, shown their fundamental sympathy with our hopes for a better more prosperous nation.

In pointing out the great need for fair employment practices during this period of defense mobilization, Murray again urged the President to issue an executive order setting up an FEPC for the duration of this national emergency.

"No single action could win greater support at home and abroad for our democratic ideals," he declared.

Meanwhile, he said the CIO would continue its steady, effective work to wipe out the blot of discrimination based on race, color or religion in American industries and in the communities where its members live.

Local Soldier In Air Force Trains At Lackland, Tex.

LACKLAND AIR FORCE BASE, Tex.—Pvt. William Harris, Jr., age 25, son of Mrs. Gladys Harris, 653 Bright street, is completing his basic airman indoctrination course at Lackland Air Force Base, the "Gateway to the Air Force." Lackland situated near San Antonio, is the world's largest air force base, site of Air Force basic training for men and women, headquarters of the Human Resource Research Center, and home of AF's Officer Candidate School.

Private Harris' basic training is preparing him for entrance into Air Force technical training and for assignment in specialized work. The course includes a scientific evaluation of his aptitude and inclination for following a particular vocation and career.

AME Minister Assumes Charge At Franklin

FRANKLIN—Rev. William Lawton recently assumed his duties as pastor of Bethel AME Church here. He came to this city from Alton, Ill., where he pastored Middle Chapel AME Church three years.

Rev. Lawton is a native of Peoria, Ill., and his wife is a native of St. Petersburg, Fla. He received his ministerial training at Bradley University, Peoria, Ill. He was ordained 18 years ago at St. John's AME Church, Springfield, Ill.

Rev. and Mrs. Lawton have moved into the Bethel parsonage with their granddaughter, Mary Alice Durrah. She has entered the third grade in the city schools. They also have a son, William Lawton, Jr., Peoria, and a daughter, Mrs. Roberta Moody, St. Petersburg.

Rev. W. H. Adams, former pastor of the church, and Mrs. Adams have moved to his new charge at Terre Haute.

EVANSVILLE MAN GETS MANSLAUGHTER TERM IN SLAYING

EVANSVILLE—After a six-minute deliberation by a jury of eight men and four women, John Washington Tapp, age 32, found guilty of voluntary manslaughter in the slaying of John Warden, age 26, on June 22.

Tapp testified that he and Warden had argued over Tapp's over-friendliness with Warden's common-law wife. Tapp stated Warden was drunk when approaching him with a knife. He told the jury he grabbed the knife and stabbed Warden when the latter came toward him.

Tapp admitted serving 19 months in the Kentucky state prison on a 1942 conviction of malicious striking to kill.

NEW YORK—As the shock of the slaying by Sheriff Willis McCall of one of the defendants in the celebrated Groveland "rape" case and the serious wounding of the other began stirring a dazed America into action, two members of a fact-finding committee of clergymen who visited Lake County, Florida, in an effort to determine whether a fair trial would be possible for Samuel Shepherd and Walter Irvin called the shootings "the inevitable result of the apathy of prejudice and blind trust in McCall which we had encountered in our interviews."

In the offices of the NAACP in New York, Rev. Paul Moore, Jr., of the Grace Episcopal Church, Jersey City, and Professor S. Ralph Harlow of Smith College, Northampton, Mass., expressed the questions that have been plaguing stunned Americans since the first word of the shootings hit the newspapers.

Rev. Moore, who was in Orlando at the time the incident occurred, said that even in the hate-ridden section of central Florida that was the scene of the tragedy, people were asking: Why was the sheriff driving alone at night with two prisoners who had been condemned to death? Why were two cars used to bring them over from the penitentiary at Raiford, and why was this done at night? Why did Sheriff McCall bypass the main thoroughfare to Tavares in favor of a longer and less frequented back road?

Shepherd, who was slain, and Irvin, in critical condition in Waterman Memorial Hospital, Eustis, were en route with McCall to Tavares, where hearings were scheduled to be held Wednesday morning, November 7, on the motion filed by NAACP attorneys asking for a change of venue to another county. Deputy Sheriff James Yates, who is reported to have suggested some time ago that the prisoners attempt to "run," was ahead in another car. The change of venue motion was the first step in the re-trial of the two, whose convictions and death sentences were unanimously reversed on April 9 of this year by the United States Supreme Court, with an historic concurring opinion by Justice Robert H. Jackson.

In their first trial "one of the best examples of one of the worst menaces to American justice," Justice Department Probe In response to an urgent request by NAACP Special Counsel Thurgood Marshall, who left for Florida to make a first-hand investigation of the shootings, Attorney General J. Howard McGrath ordered an FBI probe to determine whether there were violations of federal civil rights statutes. These statutes make it a federal offense to deprive citizens of life, liberty or due process under "color" of law. McCall's story was that the youths, handcuffed and weakened after more than two years in a lightless, badly ventilated prison cell, attacked him in an attempt to escape.

Lawyers Barred At Hospital Irvin, left for dead in a ditch by McCall, and still handcuffed to the slain Shepherd, was critically wounded by three shots in his chest and neck, but this week he was rallying and was given a fair chance to live. When NAACP attorneys attempted to talk with him to hear his story of what happened, they were ordered from his room by police officers who said the could not return without written permission of Irvin's doctors and the judge.

Robert L. Carter, NAACP assistant special counsel, pointed out at the Association's press conference in New York today that Florida statutes gave lawyers the right to see their clients privately at any time after arrest.

Propaganda Food Calling the Lake County tragedy "a stab in the back to the boys fighting in Korea," Professor Harlow predicted that it would be headlined around the world and asserted that "Stalin couldn't have bought" better anti-American propaganda "for a million dollars." Mr. White described it as "one of the most shocking instances of deliberate flouting of the United States Supreme Court" know to the Association.

"Failure to punish Sheriff McCall and others responsible," the NAACP official said, "would mean a complete breakdown of justice, not only in Florida, but in the whole South and the whole country."

MUNICIPAL JUDGE APPOINTMENTS

A rare opportunity to redeem the good name of Indianapolis has been presented to Gov. Henry F. Schricker in the necessity to appoint three judges of the Municipal Court.

It is "once in a lifetime" that three vacancies would occur together, due to two resignations and the expiration of a term.

The law requires that two of the appointees be Democrats and one a Republican. Justice and fair play require we believe, that one of the appointees be chosen from among the well-qualified Negro attorneys of the city.

By taking this long-overdue forward step, Governor Schricker could end the "freeze-out" of Negroes from political office in Indianapolis; and show the nation that democracy still lives in the Hoosier state.

MAYOR-ELECT CLARK'S TREND

Mayor-Elect Alex M. Clark surprised many voters with his modest and un-politician-like victory statement in which he disclaimed personal triumph and observed that he "rode a trend."

This newspaper will note that a trend in itself is often not enough—it takes a good man to ride a trend. We had singled out Judge Clark as a good man in the community long before he was a candidate for mayor. In our first issue of 1951, he was named to The Recorder's Race Relations Honor Roll, along with only nine other Hoosiers. At that time we cited Judge Clark "for his upright and honest decision handing down a conviction and levying a fine for violation of the Indiana Civil Rights Act, in the case of a waiter who refused service for reasons of race; thus restoring, in the state's capital, respect for law and for human beings."

We knew, therefore, that we were standing on firm ground when we supported Judge Clark's candidacy for mayor, and thus helped him to "ride the trend." And now the question is, What was the nature of the trend?

It is generally conceded that an important factor in Judge Clark's victory—perhaps the most important factor—was the switch to his standard of large numbers of Negro voters who had been Democratic. As far as these voters are concerned, there is no doubt whatsoever about the nature of the trend among them. They voted in protest against the local Democrats' policy of excluding Negroes from public office and of generally upholding racial prejudice in Indianapolis. They voted not with confidence in the Republicans—whose record is little if any better—but in the hope that a new broom might sweep the city clear of discrimination and second-class citizenship.

That was part of the trend, Mayor-Elect Clark, a big part of the trend—a trend toward the equality of all men as laid down in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States.

NO WHITE SUPREMACY COACH FOR I. U.

Judging from the resignation of Football Coach Clyde B. Smith of Indiana University, the people who are ruining U. S. college sports haven't learned a lesson out of all the recent scandals. "Smitty's" only crime is his team's losing streak, which is said to be caused by the failure to recruit enough high school stars year after year. In other words, the Crimson coach has not been "guilty enough" of the practices for which the coaching profession is being universally condemned. "He has given our football team a moral code which I don't think could be excelled anywhere," said I. U. Athletic Director Paul J. Harrell—but the question is whether he was praising Smith or blaming him!

We have no candidate for "Smitty's" successor, but we do want to turn thumbs down on one "nomination" that has been made—that of Don Veller, the coach of Florida State. In the first place, as has been pointed out elsewhere, there is no assurance that Veller would be a better coach than Smith. His much-publicized record has been compiled in a strictly hush league, against such opposition as Troy State and Delta State.

Even more damning is the fact that Veller's team a few weeks ago provided one of the most flagrant incidents of bad sportsmanship in the history of football. When informed that Bradley University would not leave its Negro players behind, Florida State canceled its games with Bradley for this year and next year. As the coach of Florida State, Veller must bear the grave responsibility for that action.

I. U. in recent years has forged to the front in establishing democracy on the campus and in athletics. Hoosier taxpayers will not stand for the turning back of that clock, through the hiring of a white-supremacy-minded football coach.

JUDGE LYNCH ON THE HIGH ROAD

Wherein his spirit has followed through in a rank travesty on constitutional justice, Judge Lynch appears to have taken the high road again around Groveland, Florida.

This is in connection with the "Groveland, Florida Rape Case farce of 1949," which came to an end last week in the simulated lynching of Samuel Shepherd and the critical wounding of Walter Lee Irvin.

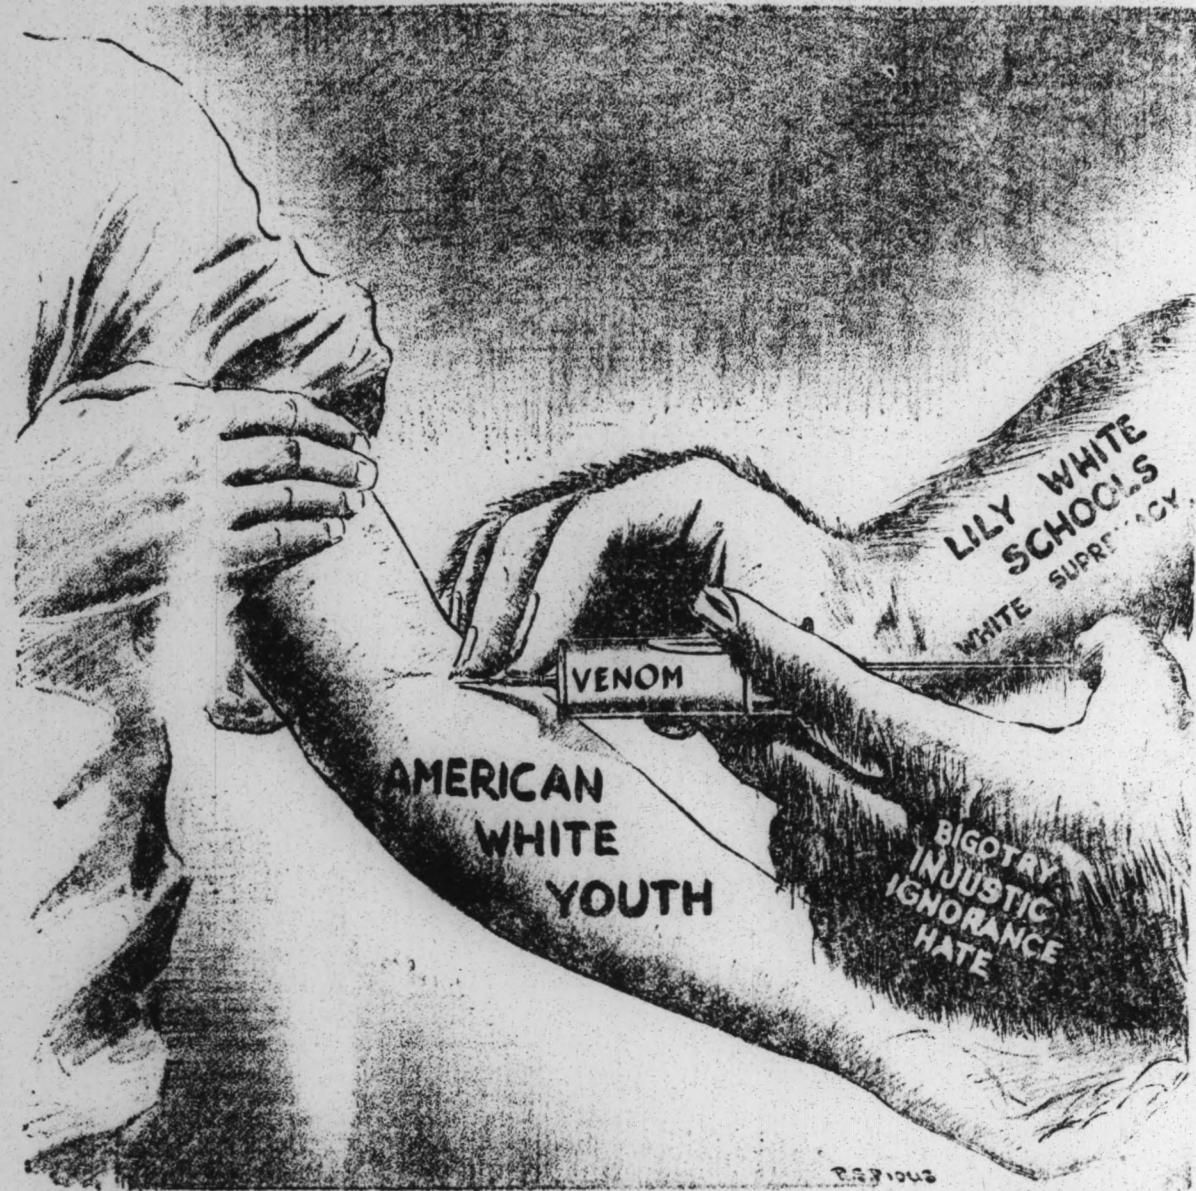

Nominal products of promising American surroundings and traditions, Shepherd was killed and Irvin critically wounded by Sheriff Willis B. McCall. By this time the story is well known as reported in both national and international news.

Four young men ranging in ages from 16 to 21, at the time of the incident, were involved in the "Groveland, Florida Rape Case farce on 1949." Investigators of the national offices of the NAACP gathered evidence proving three youths were innocent of all charges made against them. At the time in keeping with the spirit of Judge Lynch Ernest Thomas had been slain while trying to escape the "certain course" of Dixie justice in this instance.

Charles Greenlee, age 16 at the time of the "rape farce" received a life sentence. Shepherd and Irvin were found guilty and received the death penalty. The U. S. Supreme Court granted them a new trial but they lost again last week.

Perhaps some day Samuel Shepherd and Ernest Thomas meeting some place along the low road with other spirits from Groveland, Florida may hear the "muses of justice" chanting in the four winds:

"Foolish men imagine that retribution is apathetic or procrastinating in reckoning with the evils of mortal survey and domain. Yet retribution is not a contingency; because in the affairs of men or nations the reckoning season may follow in days or years and again in a century or longer, yet the high road and the low road eventually come to ending places."

"THE MAIN REASON WHY SEPARATE SCHOOLS SHOULD BE ABOLISHED"

MISCELLANEOUS MUSINGS

By T. C. JOHNSON

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

During the last generation far-seeing school men have sought with some success to make teaching school a learned profession ranking with the practice of medicine, law and dentistry.

To that end teachers are more highly educated and better paid than they formerly were. Much, however, remains to be done.

There is an insistent need for teachers of broad scholarship, natural refinement, native capacity, high ethical ideals and practices, and humanitarian impulses. Among teachers, nevertheless, there are many mediocre persons as is true of all other occupational groups.

Bobbitt's interesting conception that schools should be concerned with the entire scope of man's abilities, habits and systems of knowledge cannot be gone into here. Nor is there space for Snedden's four-fold classification of the purposes toward which educational institutions should direct their thought and action. The aim merely is to discuss briefly the seven which the National Education Association formulated.

Those aims of school teaching and school attendance should be of continuing concern to pupils, parents and teachers. Parents and pupils, however, are almost wholly unaware of them, while to most teachers they have little meaning. It is to be hoped, nevertheless, that in time instructors may be so thoroughly acquainted with their significance and practicability as to use them constructively.

Any thoughtful person would rather be strong and well than weak and sick. All progressive communities prefer healthful surroundings to those that breed disease. Health, therefore, is of value both to individuals and to people in general.

Schools and colleges are trying to teach hygienic living in the hope that eventually all persons individually and the entire nation may become health-conscious and take intelligent, continuous steps for the avoidance of unnecessary illness. The requirement by some states that school graduation is a step in that direction.

Any normal child completing the common school should be able to speak and write English correctly, read understandingly and perform arithmetical operations involving whole numbers, common and decimal fractions, and reasoning problems. Properly taught, other subjects in addition to those indicated should go far toward stirring correct feelings and the imagination, at the same time stimulating the learner to conceive, judge and reason.

THE FUNDAMENTAL PROCESSES

Good citizens should join any united, determined movement to improve the community. They ought to be familiar with public issues and help intelligently in their solution.

WORTHY HOME MEMBERSHIP

The home with its hallowed associations of birth, life, death and intimately repeated experiences probably is the most influential of all educational factors. If each household member contributes the proper cultural activities, the home can become a more satisfying social institution and thereby further the advance of civilization. Nearly everybody all through life by his habits, attitudes and emotions shows his good home training or lack of proper home surroundings.

In another city I know a family consisting of the parents and an 18-year-old son. All have good jobs. They have divided the housework among them. After preparing the evening meal, for example, the wife and mother labors no more at home. The man washes the dishes, sets the table for breakfast and do whatever else must be done. They attend church and other places together. All seems peace, understanding and helpfulness in their every relation.

VOCATIONAL EFFICIENCY

All young persons should be aided in finding a life career for which they are fitted and in which they can lead a satisfying life. All boys and girls should be taught that they are occupying a vital position in life unless they make their own living and aid relatives who may need assistance.

CITIZENSHIP

Good citizens should join any united, determined movement to improve the community. They ought to be familiar with public issues and help intelligently in their solution.

WORTHY USE OF LEISURE

Reduced hours of work due to science, developments in the industrial arts and trade unionism, have given people more idle time than many can use wisely. Schools are justifying their existence by the time spent in useful recreation and self-improvement instead of vicious idleness, waste and crime. ETHICAL CHARACTER will be assured if the other objectives are attained.

WILL NEGRO GET BREAD OR STONE IN NEW POLITICAL LINE-UP?

The name-calling and the mud-slinging of the 1951 municipal elections, and the victors have been declared but the most Indianapolis Negroes the majority contest was strictly a tug-of-war between Tweedledum and Tweedledee.

Any local Negro who is not a half-wit is aware that in the past eight years both major and minor political parties have dealt with the Negro as though he did not exist and that neither of the political candidates in the recent contest seems particularly concerned about his welfare.

If the figures indicate that an unusual number of Negroes voted for the victor, it is not because they were voting against the dictates of Washington or preparing to change the nation political complexion in 1952. It was merely that they were disgusted with being ignored by the present administration, which was ushered in by the late Al Peeney and which from the start refused to accord any recognition of the Negro element of the electorate. Mayor Peeney not only refused to appoint Negroes to any responsible city jobs or commissions under the excuse that "it will do you more harm than good," he refused to appoint an interracial committee on minority affairs and abolished the position of chauffeur—a position held by Negroes in many previous administrations.

It was probably not fair to pass on to Mayor Byrd, who inherited his position from the self-willed Al, the venom stored up for his predecessor.

With the elections safely over, Negroes will be wanting to see some action on the part of the new city administration but the fact remained that in spite of his many admirable qualities as chief executive of the city, the new mayor failed to correct the mistakes of the man whose protegee he was. Perhaps if elected mayor on his own, Phil Byrd would have made significant appointments of Negroes to policy-making boards and the better paying city jobs, but may Negro voters were not taking that chance.

The trouble with that type of voting, of course, is that it is negative. It consists of either choosing the lesser of two evils or of rejecting a known evil for an unknown, which may be either good or evil.

And as for the recent election the latter course was the one pursued. The claims of Negro Republicans of the superiority of their candidate over the incumbent lacked concrete evidence to back them up, and there is nothing in the past public activities of Judge Alex Clark to indicate that he is any more aware of the essentials of American democracy when it comes to minority rights and aspirations than were his last two Republican and his latest two Democratic predecessors.

The facts that he waged his campaign on such far-fetched issues as states' rights, international affairs and the election of Mr. Churchill, indicated that either Judge Clark did not know the local issues or was trying to avoid discussing them. There is a strong suspicion that it was the latter case. The police court judge was reminiscent of the magician who has the audience watch his right hand while he maneuvers with his left.

With the elections safely over, Negroes will be wanting to see some action on the part of the new city administration and the state Democratic administration before the May primaries and the November elections of 1952 roll around. Fortunately the 1951 elections were not the last.

For the city, Negroes are expecting and ought to have representation on either the City Plan Commission, the Safety Board, or the Park Board or all three; they want better city jobs; they want complete integration in the fire and police departments so that race will not be a factor in the hiring, placement or promotion of personnel. In addition they want a mayor's committee to advise the administration on measures to promote inter-group harmony and fair play. They need and want better police, fire protection, sanitation and transportation for the sections of the city where Negroes are now permitted to live and an official repudiation of the policy of enforced residential segregation.

Finally, Indianapolis Negroes want from the new administration a strong F.E.P.C. ordinance with teeth and a policy of withholding of franchises from public amusement places like Riverside Park which discriminate on account of race or color.

From the state administration of the man in the white hat, Negroes expect the appointment of a qualified Negro to one of the three municipal judgeships soon to be vacant in the capital city and an earnest and all-out attempt by the state's chief executive to make the present weak F.E.P.C. law work. The appointment of a Negro to this commission would be one step in the right direction.

In these days when men sell their birthright for a mess of pottage, the Negro vote is for sale—but not for money. It already shows a tendency to go to the highest bidder in terms of advancing him toward full-fledged American citizenship. The doubts of the politicians of either party can be resolved at the polls.

BETWEEN THE LINES

By DEAN GORDON E. HANCOCK For ANP

FROM STATESMAN TO DEMAGOGUE

Virginia and North Carolina among the southern states have been spared the demagoguery that has scourged South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi. Virginia has never boasted a counterpart to Ben Tillman. Cole Blease, Hoke Smith, Tom Watson, Hardwick, Heflin and Bilbo to say nothing about the Talmadges.

Carter Glass was Virginia's nearest approach to the demagogue, and he was a more refined type than those mentioned above. But that Carter Glass was a Negrophobe there was little or no reason to doubt, yet he was something of a statesman. He decidedly colored the political texture of his times and not altogether for the worse. His influence in the establishing of our Federal Reserve System was overmastering and stands probably as his crowning achievement. He was a stickler for government economies and on the whole exercised a wholesome influence on the finances of the nation in spite of the fact that he was a Negrophobe.

When Glass moved on, Harry Flood Byrd moved up as his rightful successor and the mantle of Glass fell upon the not incapable shoulders of Senator Byrd.

Everybody knows that Byrd is no particular friend to the Negro race in its aspirations for full-fledged citizenship. He would seek rather to perpetuate the southern tradition of keeping the Negro in his place and that is a place of step-citizenship. Although a refined kind of Negrophobe, Sen. Byrd could always be counted on to oppose any government measures that even remotely promised good to Negroes.

It has come about that Harry Truman has stood staunchly for civil rights and the advantages they would bring to the Negro citizens of this country. Byrd has become his implacable enemy and refuses to lay off. He has hounded Truman from the very beginning albeit he was rather quiet while Roosevelt was around.

It has been wisely said that when the tomato is away the rats come out to play. It is even so with politics. When Roosevelt faded his eyes Byrd stalked forth to prey upon hapless Harry Truman who was committed as best he could to the prosecution of the Roosevelt program.

But Byrd has never laid off. At every turn of the political road, Byrd could always be counted on by the disgruntled and grouchy Republicans to thwart the Truman program. He and his political cohorts have succeeded astonishingly in keeping the nation morally shackled in that no legislation can be passed that would liberate Negroes.

Within recent weeks Byrd has taken to the stump in the South, and what once seemed promising statesmanship has been turned into demagoguery of the Ben Tillman type. He is shaking civil rights in the South just as a red handkerchief is flaunted in the face of an angry bull.

The extent that Sen. Byrd would use the civil rights issue to inflame the imagination of the retarded South is the extent to which a once promising statesman has turned demagogue and becomes just another millstone upon the neck of the struggling South. There were those of us who had hoped that the South might be spared further retardation that comes of these demagogues who have been such affliction since the Civil War. But our hopes are not being fulfilled when men of Sen. Byrd's proven ability turn demagogue to incite fear and frustration in the hearts and minds of the South.

Sen. Byrd ought to know by now that the civil rights issue is before this nation and will be until it is settled right. He should further know that the Negro's restiveness under the present step-citizenship status is one of the finest things in the life of the nation. It would be a great pity if the white South were let alone with its studied attempt to eternalize the subjugation of its Negro citizens.

The South needs restless Negroes more than it needs its Talmadges, Byrds, Strom Thurmonds and Fielding Wrights. The Negroes who are fighting for their rights are one of the South's greatest moral assets even as the Byrds are one of its greatest liabilities.

HEALTH HINTS

TULAREMIA

Beware of that sick-acting bunny. Each year a few hunters die from handling rabbits infected with tularemia. Fortunately 1950 marked the first time in several years that no one in Indiana died from this disease. Let us hope that this year will mark another year of freedom from deaths caused by tularemia. It will if a few simple rules are followed.

Any rabbit sold on the jump and get-away should be suspected, for the wild rabbit is subject to tularemia. Humans acquire this disease by handling the flesh of such an animal, or through eating undercooked meat from an infected rabbit. Victims are not confined to hunters but include housewives and butchers.

The germ of tularemia enters the human body through a scratch or cut on the hands. The onset is sudden, within a few days. There is headache, vomiting, chills, aching body pains and fever—the latter giving the disease the name rabbit fever. Tularemia is frequently complicated by pneumonia, and deaths are not uncommon.

Convalescence from an attack is slow, sometimes requiring several months. Through cooking of the infected rabbit will destroy the infection.

Hunters and housewives and all others who handle wild rabbits should wear rubber gloves while skinning or preparing the animal for food.

Tularemia may also be transmitted to man through the bite of such insects as ticks, horseflies and deerflies which have first bitten infected animals.

Gee! I don't know how to start,
There's really a lot to say,
It all starts in your heart,

With love and kindness, and good cheer,
With hope and patience, too,
Without the sadness and the fear,
That make us all feel blue.

With blindness to all races,
Or from hence we come,
That means any place,

Gavilan's Bolo Punch Comes Into Its Own

By LUIX VIRGIL OVERBEA for ANP

Year after year boxing fans have been raving about the potency of the fancy-looking bolo punch, and year after year it has done very little damage during a fight.

Probably the most publicized exponent of the fabled roundhouse upper cut has been Kid Gavilan, current welterweight champion of the world. Despite the fame of this fabulous blow, the Cuban Kid has been known as strictly a powder-puff puncher.

Last week, however, the bolo punch or the Gavilan punch came into its own. The 147-pound king pulverized scrappy Tony Janiro to win a TKO in four rounds before millions of television viewers and 6,656 fans who paid $18.809 at Detroit's Olympia.

Gavilan's next two opponents will be Johnny Bratton in Chicago on Nov. 28, and tentatively Randy Turpin at a later date.

To this ringsider his victory over Janiro, especially by a knockout, was quite an upset. After all, Tony had in three fights battled Rocky Graziano to a standstill. He was to get a bout with Turpin as a reward for beating Gavilan, with a possible shot at the middleweight crown as a final prize.

This defeat just about finished him for a while as a top middleweight challenger. Maybe he fought too soon following his terrific battle with Graziano only a few weeks ago.

Anyway, one thing can be said—Gavilan does have a punch—and it could be the famed bolo.

Charles-Maxim Again

Ezzard Charles will give Light-Heavyweight Champion Joey Maxim another chance at his scalp when they meet in San Francisco at the Cow Palace on Dec. 12. This fight will be televised nationally. If Charles loses, he probably will lose any chance to regain his heavyweight championship.

Sugar Ray Robinson will defend his middleweight championship in San Francisco on Dec. 20, against Carl "Bobo" Olson of Hawaii for the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund. His next title defense (assuming he wins) will be Feb. 20 in Chicago against Rocky Graziano, if negotiations with the International Boxing Club come through.

Then the Sugar Man wants to go back to Europe. His first stop will be in France, where he will make a motion picture.

'Small Fry' Basketball To Be Fair and Square in 2nd Season

"Small fry" basketball of the Indianapolis Public School Athletic League is losing its color line, it was revealed this week.

Objections were raised last year because of continuing "remnants of segregation" in assigning the youngsters to various high school gymnasiums.

These shortcomings appear to have been corrected in the 1951-2 schedule. The junior high schools (8th grade teams) have been divided into eight districts and assigned to high schools largely on a geographical basis.

Playing at Crispus Attucks' gymnasium will be not only Schools 87, 63 and Attucks 8th grade, but also Schools 12, 2, and 5, with mixed or white student bodies.

On the other hand, School 19 will play at Manual; School 42 at Shortridge; Schools 26 and 37 at the age limit of 16.

Tech. Schools 4 and 17 will have teams in the 7th grade league, all of whose games will be played at School 10, 1255 Carrollton.

District league play for the 8th graders will begin Dec. 1 and the season will end March 29. District championships will be determined on a percentage basis of eight games, the last of which will be played Feb. 23. The city tournament, involving all 8th grade teams, will begin March 1.

The 7th graders will have their own championship, based on the percentage of league games won and lost.

Last year's championship was won by School 26, with School 37 the runner-up. Both are Negro schools. The winners later relinquished the trophy on discovering one of their players had been over the age limit of 16.

First Negro Is On Boilermaker Freshman Squad

WEST LAFAYETTE—Ernie Hall, star center of the Lafayette Jefferson 1948 state basketball champions, has become the first Negro player in history on a Purdue hardwood team.

After studying—and playing basketball—at Ventura Junior College in California, Hall enrolled at Purdue here in his home town this fall. He is a sophomore in school, but on the freshman basketball team.

Freshmen are eligible to play in intercollegiate games this year. But Bob Woodworth, Boilermaker publicity director, reminded The Recorder that "he's still a long way from the varsity."

However, the former Jeff ace had survived on the rhinoceros squad from a peak turnout of 90 candidates down to 22, apparently the last cut to be made by Freshman Coach Ward Lambert.

Probably for lack of the beanpole height demanded of college centers, Hall is now carried as a forward in the Purdue frosh roster.

McMullen From Howe

Other players on the freshman team include Charles McMullen of Indianapolis; Bob Hage from Warren Central; Bud Buntin, Madison; and Denny Blind and Charles Reynolds of last year's Lafayette Jeff quintet.

Hall is well known to local fans because he was the mainstay of the team that brought Jeff its second state championship. The Broncos waltzed through to victory in '48 with hardly a hand laid on them. They defeated Anderson in the afternoon, 60-48, and Evansville Central in the final game, 54-42.

Hall was the team's leading scorer in the Sweet Sixteen with 67 points in the four final games. Among all players he was second only to Gene Southwood of Evansville, who hit 68. Ernie's total still remains as the eighth highest in the tourney's history.

He was the third in the series of great Negro centers who have dominated the state high school tournament in recent years. In 1946 there was Johnny Wilson of Anderson high school, later to break national scoring records at Anderson College and to play with the College All-Stars and the Harlem Globetrotters.

Garrett in 1947

In 1947 it was the immortal Bill Garrett of Shelbyville, who went on to make basketball and race relations history at Indiana. In 1948 it was Hall, and in 1949-50 Entee Shine of South Bend Central, who played on the Notre Dame freshman team last season.

Last spring, of course, the septa pivot ace was Crispus Attucks' Bob Jewell, now at Michigan where there is talk he will play with the varsity rather than the first-year squad.

When Garrett graduated from I. U. in June, it was feared that the Big 10 might revert to an all-white status as far as basketball was concerned. But with Hall and Jewell coming in, it may turn out that the Conference has lost one only to gain two.

LET'S REMEMBER HIM THIS WAY: Photo above was taken when Drake's Johnny Bright, all-time U. S. champion ground-gainer, was all in one piece. Intentional slugging of the Fort Wayne star by Wilbanks Smith of Oklahoma A&M, breaking Bright's jaw and cutting short his magnificent career, was major scandal of the 1951 football season. Drake's last opponent, Wichita, voted a special award to Bright who was unable to play in the game. Missouri Valley Conference failed to punish his attacker.

BOWLING NEWS

67 Fun Bowlers Enter Tourney

By NETTIE GEE

Qualifying rounds in the Indianapolis News tournament begin Sunday, with the ladies bowling on the first squad, which starts at 3 p.m. There are 16 entrants in the ladies' group at the Fun Bowl.

The two ladies who roll the highest scores for a six-game series will then meet qualifiers from other alleys in the finals Dec. 1 and Dec. 8. The place where the finals will be held has not been designated.

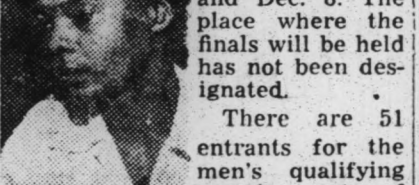

There are 51 entrants for the men's qualifying rounds, out of which the four best actual scorers will be eligible to roll against other qualifiers over the city. The men will start their qualifying rounds at 6 p.m. Sunday.

William Brown, last year's winner, will not have to qualify. He is automatically eligible to roll in the finals. He is sporting a fine gabardine shirt with green and orange letters for this year's event. The lettering reads "W.B." on the front, and "Indianapolis City Match Game Champion 1950-51" on the back.

Six new names have been added to the 600 Club: J. Pillow, G. Woodard, M. Grubbs, E. Loyd, J. Brown and Tamarri.

We are glad to welcome back two of our ladies who were out due to illness, Anita Johnson and Elizabeth Stanfield.

MISS GEE

There are 51 entrants for the men's qualifying rounds, out of which the four best actual scorers will be eligible to roll against other qualifiers over the city. The men will start their qualifying rounds at 6 p.m. Sunday.

William Brown, last year's winner, will not have to qualify. He is automatically eligible to roll in the finals. He is sporting a fine gabardine shirt with green and orange letters for this year's event. The lettering reads "W.B." on the front, and "Indianapolis City Match Game Champion 1950-51" on the back.

Crowe Tallies Pitchin' and Then Catchin'

Halfback Bill Crowe of Indiana Central can make a touchdown on you either pitchin' or catchin'.

The high-scoring Greyhound ace did both Saturday as Central defeated Manchester, 19-0, to nail down second place in the Hoosier Conference.

In the first quarter, Crowe passed 25 yards to Joe Hurrie for a TD. And in the third period he caught a 25-yarder from Freshman Jim Duncan for another tally.

At Minneapolis, End Clifton Anderson of I. U. was co-captain for the day and snared a couple of nice passes from Gene Gorman. The Hoosiers lost 16-14 to Minnesota.

Notre Dame couldn't get anywhere against Michigan State—one of the chief reasons being the Spartans' All-American tackle, Don Coleman. The undersized septa ace headed up a line that hurled the Irish back to the tune of 35 to 0.

Dill, Hallie and Co. Face Sheridan at Tech

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

Well, well, well! Look who's back! None other than the Dust Bowl Kids, the Fieldhouse Trotters, the one and only Crispus Attucks basketball Tigers. Complete with William "Dill" Gardner, Hallie Bryant, Bailey "One-Hand" Robertson. With a few subtractions from last season's merry crew, and of course a few additions. And guided again by the Rookie Coach of the year—who shot to glory on his first time out, soft-spoken (but don't let that fool you!) Ray Crowe.

It seems like only yesterday that the Tigers' beautiful dream was ended by Evansville Reitz on that cold morning in Butler Fieldhouse, but it's been—why, it's been eight months! And here they go again!

The date is next Tuesday, Nov. 20, the place Technical high school's gymnasium, the time 8 p.m., and the opposition is Sheridan. The Tigers won all that fame, ate more banquets than General MacArthur, and they still don't have a home where they can entertain. Same as last year, not a single game is scheduled at the undersized Attucks goaleys this season, which maybe explains why they play like the Globetrotters.

We said the opposition is Sheridan, and that's what we mean—not the "first victim," etc. Sheridan often comes up with a strong team. Matter of fact, Sheridan was the fourth strongest team Attucks played in 1950-51, based on scores. Howe and Reitz beat the Tigers, and Anderson lost 81-80, and next was Sheridan which suffered a two-point defeat, 63-61.

Give 'Em a Chance

Besides which we're going to keep on respecting the opposition, regardless of who it is. We're not going to keep holding up last year's record before this year's boys, and we're not going to tell them they're a cinch for the state championship. There never was but one cinch for the state championship, and that team was lost in the sectional. An early poll has already rated Attucks 10 boys.

Seniors—Robert "Ducky" Parrish, 5' 7"; Claude Bartee, 5' 7"; Rudolph Hickman, 6' 1"; and William "Cubby" Carr, 6'.

Juniors—Willie Posley, 5' 7"; Cleveland Harp, 6' 5"; and Joe King, 6' 2".

Sophomores—James Lee, 6' 1"; and Robert "Bebop" Jones, 5' 11".

Admitting that with the exception of Gardner and his understudy, Harp, the squad is down to "normal" size in comparison with last year's giants, Crowe said that he is not dismayed.

"Some of these little fellows who are clever ball-handlers are more valuable," he observed. "If we lacked anything last year, it was a player of that kind to bring the ball down the floor."

NIGHT — TOUR:

—By Opal L. Tandy—

All About People:

A delegation headed by officials from the Federated Clubs visited the governor Tuesday with the proposition that he appoint one or two Negroes to fill vacancies existing in three Municipal Courts of Marion County. I think the idea was good but I think a mistake was made when the Federation of Clubs took the initiative. In my opinion it is always a good thing to see people try to promote and advance deserving Negroes to positions of importance and responsibility but oftentimes too much effort exerted in one direction takes the color of pressure.

I think advancements in politics should be initiated by politicians. Politicians would get much more and better results with the governor I believe than would civic and social groups. I don't believe that the governor will appoint a Negro to either of the benches. Not that he shouldn't but that he just won't do it. On the Democratic side the governor will refuse because he has made it known that he thinks well of Mayor Phil Bayt and probably will offer the post to him. If he, Bayt, refuses then he will give it to someone who worked hard in the party and who in the governor's opinion will be a Democrat for Democrats. This might be Richard Stewart. Whatever happens, the Democrats will do well if they appoint a Negro as a bailiff in one of the courts.

The two attorneys whose names were submitted to the governor were Rufus Kuykendall and Mercer Mance. Kuykendall's chances are slim for one reason only, he is very very close to mayor-elect Alex Clark. The Governor is known to have turned thumbs down on any one who is close to Clark. And no Negro is closer to Clark than is Kuykendall. If the governor would appoint a Negro Democrat Mance's chances would be very good. Schriker told the committee that he was in the state house but that he knew a lot about things that went on in the Municipal Courts and that the appointee this time would be some one who did not or rather would not conduct himself in a manner that he believed detrimental to the welfare of all the people. The governor gave an example: "I know that sometimes a poor man goes up in front of the judge and has no lawyer. The judge asks him why he does not have a lawyer and then suggests some lawyer who is close to the court. The lawyer charges the poor man $100.00 when if he had been tried without a lawyer he would have been fined $20 at the most instead of the $20.00 plus the lawyer's fee."

At the recent Democratic meeting at the Sunset Terrace in which I presided, Governor Schriker said that he was proud of the fact that he made first-time appointments for several Negroes in state jobs. He has or had a very good chance to make another Negro first this time but so far he apparently does not want any more Negro first-time appointments. And this statement comes from me, who by the way always vote, promote, and advise Democratically.

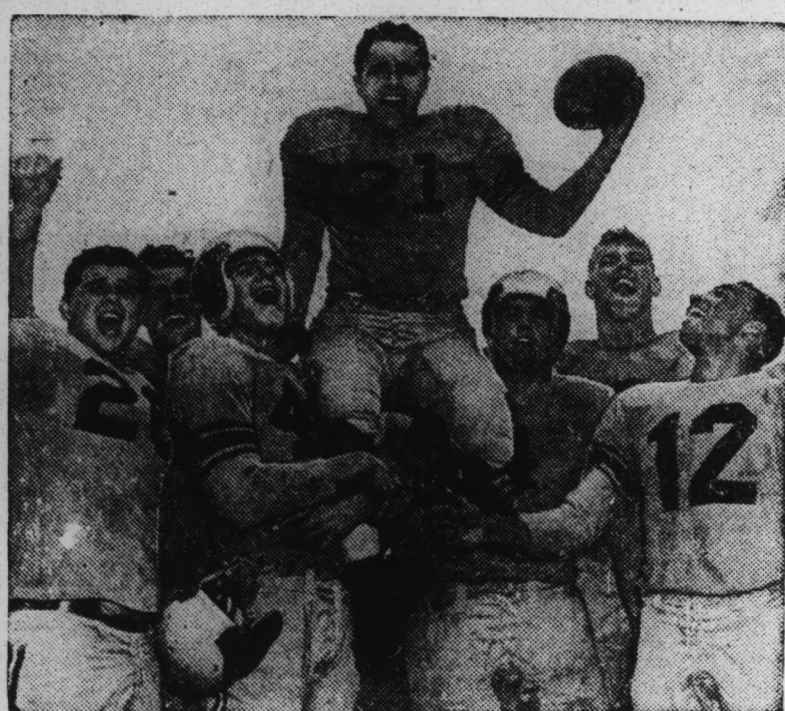

The Golden West Club at the Palm Hotel opened up with an official bang Monday night. Joseph Mitchell and his little brother, Isaac, stole the show and paid for it. They passed out hundreds of bottles of whiskey and beer to the hundreds of first-nighters who crowded into the gaily decorated rooms and glass bar. Hattie Banks, 812 Paca Street, didn't wear a hat to the grand opening but she left with a velvet one outlined with rhinestones.

Tuffy Mitchell saw one attractive lady wearing the velvet chapeau and didn't like her in it. He bought it, paid her three times what she paid for it and then gave Mrs. Banks a fin to wear it and keep it.

A small combo provided music for the Golden Westerners as they packed the place from 8 p.m. until midnight. Percy (Jackie P.) Saunders, the treasurer of the club, acted in the role of official host. What was missing in class was made up for in quantity and color. Everybody who ever did take a drink seemingly tried to add to his list of alcoholic conquests at the Golden West. This included: Huron Head, Hugh Bell, Edwina Bell, Charlie Betty, the Hawkins girls, ofays, Ira Goodrich, Joella Durante Riley, Alice Mullins, Leatrice Webb, Ruth Williams, Ernest Perry, Gloria Smith, and far too many more for me to mention. The Golden West is off on its round-up.

Minnie The Mooch is dead. Everybody already knows that. The people who helped to pay for her funeral did a good job. But I can't keep from thinking of all of those or rather some of those who did more for Minnie in death than they did for her during life. I never did see anyone trying to find some place for Minnie to live. But when she died most of them gave money maybe because publicity was in the offing. I am to blame also. I ever did much for Minnie. Everybody wants pay these days for almost everything they do for you. Election eve I saw Minnie in front of the Recorder office and she asked me for a dime. I gave her the dime and asked her to vote the Democratic ticket. She said she would but even if she did it didn't do us much good. I have a bad habit of wanting to know what people think about. This was my case in the instance of Minnie. Always did wonder what she thought about in the mind of her covered up with wrinkled features and a sharp tongue. Most of the time when people cut you off sharply or are always ready for a fight, they are hiding something. This was true in Minnie's life, but I never did know it to be true until she died. Mr. Scotty Scott did the Moocher's story and did a very good job of it too. I did not go to her funeral — didn't want to. I did take a look at her in the morgue, however, at General Hospital just in case some violence was the cause of her sudden death. If that had been true then Minnie's case would have taken top priority on my list of investigations.

This gives me an opportunity to thank the thousands of loyal Democrats who went down to defeat with me in the recent campaign for Phil Bayt. He who has not tasted the dregs of defeat will never fully appreciate the nectar of victory. The new mayor-elect, Alex Clark, has few if any enemies in the Republican ranks now, because they were all for him. But one month after Jan. 1 he will need a special accountant to keep track of the people Republicans who will be cutting him up because he didn't give either them or someone they sponsored, the particular job they wanted. When he appoints a Chief of Police he will automatically make at least 10 or 15 other prospective chiefs mad, and the same thing is true in the Board of Works, Sanitation, Safety Board, Street Commissioner, etc. That part the Negro will play I don't know and don't want to know, but one thing sure it can't be too big. Never has been and I can't see how it will change so suddenly now.

JOHN DEREK is "Saturday's Hero," a bigtime college football player in the Sidney Buchman production co-starring Donna Reed at the Walker Sunday.

ANOTHER SURVIVOR: William Phipps, right, Susan Douglas and Charles Lampkins discover James Anderson is another of their strange group, the last people on earth, in "Five," which starts Sunday at the Avenue.

Wright-Designed Ranch House Just Right for 'Five' Setting

Luther Adler, co-starred with David Wayne and Howard Da Silva in Columbia Pictures' "M," Sunday at the Avenue Theatre, brought a wealth of background and experience in the theatre to his demanding role in the film. Adler is seen as a brilliant lawyer who has sold himself to the underworld and has, as a result, taken to drink. His plea for a maniacal killer in the climactic scene of "M" has been described by those who have viewed it as one of the greatest performances in recent screen history.

The actor's father was the famed Jacob Adler, one of the all-time stars of the New York stage. Luther not only stuck to his father's last — he reached audiences of which his father could only dream — through the medium of the motion picture screen.

ALSO SHOWING
A film which advance reviewers

have described as "compelling," "dynamic," "amazing" and "shocking" arrives Sunday on the screen of the Avenue Theatre in Columbia Pictures' "Five," starring William Phipps, Susan Douglas, James Anderson, Charles Lampkins and Earl Lee. Produced, written and directed by Arch Oboler, radio's famed dramatist, "Five" tells the story of the last five people left on earth, four men and a woman. "Five" was chiefly filmed on Oboler's 360-acre ranch, high in the Santa Monica mountains of California.

"Saturday's Hero" at Walker Sunday Thru Wednesday

'SATURDAY'S HERO' STAR LEARNED THE HARD WAY

The name of John Derek must go pretty near the top of any list of Hollywood stars who have given their all for art.

Derek played football for months on end as the star of "Saturday's Hero," Sidney Buchman's production for Columbia Pictures, Sunday at the Walker Theatre. Donna Reed is co-starred, while Sidney Blackmer and Alexander Knox head the supporting cast in the new film.

"Saturday's Hero" is no ordinary do-or-die-for-dear-alma-mater football picture. Based on Millard Lampell's best-selling novel, "The Hero," and written for the screen by Lampell and Sidney Buchman, it is a non-punches-pulled, unvarnished screen expose of the college football "racket." Derek is presented as a star high-school athlete who is thrust into a college environment foreign to his background. He is a "Saturday's Hero" because of his football skill but off the gridiron, he is snubbed by the fraternity boys of the ivy-cloistered college which considers him only as one of the "kept men" in a body-buying system.

TWO DEER STOP RUTH BROWN

NEW YORK (ANP)—Ruth Brown, popular blues recording artist, ran across two observers who were unimpressed by her desire to be on hand to take up an engagement at the Birdland here recently. The observers were a couple of deer who darted out of a patch of woods onto the highway down which Miss Brown was traveling in a Cadillac driven by her brother. As would be expected, car met deer and they broke even. Both the deer and the auto were put out of commission. Miss Brown and her brother were forced to abandon the vehicle and take a cab into the city.

SKATARENA GRAND OPENING ATTENDED BY 1,500 PEOPLE

About 1,500 people of all ages attended the grand opening of the Skatarena, newest amusement center of the city, at 27th street and Schofield avenue last Friday evening. William Fortune, Indiana state treasurer, appeared and spoke as the representative of Gov. Henry F. Schriker.

Other special guests for the occasion included Starling W. James, president of the Federation of Associated Clubs, Inc.; Marcus C. Stewart, editor of The Recorder; Charles Davis, Rev. A. S. Brown, J. Frank Hanley and R. K. Smith.

More than 500 skaters participated in the festivities of the evening. Door prizes included one pair of skates awarded to a lady and one pair of skates awarded to a man. Treats for the young included hot dogs, candy and soft drinks.

Classes To Be Held
Appointments of the Skatarena include a soft drink fountain, lunch counter, modern restrooms and seating facilities for several hundred spectators. The staff numbers about 20 persons. Competent instructors are employed and classes will be held for beginners, both children and adults.

The skating rink will be open from 7:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. Matinees will be held on Saturdays and Sundays from 2 to 4 p.m. The schedule of amusement offered by the management will eventually include amateur boxing, contes, associated with the Golden Gloves events.

The management also announces that the rink and its facilities will be available to clubs and other organizations for conventions, dancing parties and other activities requiring space of considerable proportions.

Built By David Krieger
The Skatarena, presented to the public as the largest and most beautiful amusement center of its type in the state, was erected and is owned by David Krieger, widely known as a financier in the construction field.

Hugh Medford is business manager and Emerson Murphy is operational manager. Mr. Murphy, a local man, was employed 10 years at the Savoy Ballroom roller-skating rink in Chicago. He attended local grade schools and graduated at Wendell Phillips high school, Chicago, where he was a three-letter athlete.

JOE LIGGINS AND BAND

HER SINGING FAME ALL A BIG MISTAKE

Joyce Bryant never meant to be a singer. How she has become a success in the entertainment world was all a big mistake, she reveals in the current December issue of Our World Magazine.

Known as the "Sensation in Satin" because of her linge for satin gowns, Miss Bryant was stranded four years ago in Los Angeles. It happened during a stop-over trip there while she was on her way to school in Alabama. Her carfare went for the temptin' gnomies and the city's gaiety.

Desperately in need of money she took up the dare of a nite club emcee at the Cobra Club who offered $20 to any girl in the au-

Tab ("Because of You") Smith and his mellow dance band will be jumpin' at the Sunset dancery this Sunday nite, November 18.

The new juke box favorite is considered the "hit of today," by music lovers and dance fans throughout the country. His "Dee-Jay Special" and many other popular song hits on United Records have endeared the groovy saxophonist to millions across the nation.

The popular stylist is a sensation with his ork, a combination of eight musicians every where he plays. Tab hails from Kingston, N. C., and started music at the early age of 14 and comes from a musical family. You will enjoy dancing to the tune of this talented artist and his "jump" musicians, who are on the upbeat with the downbeat. Petite Betty Mays is an added attraction in the vocal department.

MORE COLLECTOR'S ITEMS COMING UP

NEW YORK (ANP) — Record collectors will be jumping with and for joy soon when a new issue of treasure trove in popular albums comes off the RCA Victor presses.

The projected release, to be available on 45 and 78 rpm speeds only, will consist of 11 albums. They will have the personalized versions of some of the hit tunes of the lush jazz and swing era as performed by name figures, then at their zenith, who are now legendary.

One such album spotlights the 12 years of the jazz-tinging career of the late Fats Waller. Title of this collection is "Fats Waller Favorites." Another is an "8 to the Bar" album of boogie-woogie masterpieces by the Pete Johnson and the late Albert Ammons duet.

One album, a collection of fox trots, entitled "Smoke Rings," will present the popular orchestras of Benny Goodman, Tommy Dorsey, Larry Clinton, Sammy Kaye, Artie Shaw, Duke Ellington, Glenn Miller and Freddy Martin. Another, entitled "Up Swing," will contain some of the famous instrumentals by many of these musicians.

THE FAT MAN: Biggest member of the Louis Jordan show currently playing dance dates is "Fat Man" Lloyd, the band's blues singer. Philadelphia-born, "Fat Man" tips the scales at 240 pounds. What's his favorite number? A tune called "Little Legs Woman."

Joe Liggins 'Honey Drippers' at Sunset Dancery Nov. 22

Joe Liggins and his original "Honeydrippers," the sensational band of the year, will appear at the Sunset on Thanksgiving nite, Nov. 22 for a one nite engagement. Candy Rivers is featured with the outfit.

Liggins, the juke box king, skyrocketed to national popularity when the recording of the "Honeydrippers," his own composition, became America's favorite record, according to "Billboard," the nation's best informed magazine in the field of entertainment.

His appearance in Naptown with his famous musicians give the local juke box fans an opportunity to see one of the most famous little bands in the country in person.

In addition to the incomparable Liggins, who is leader, pianist, composer, and vocalist of his band, "The Honeydrippers" feature Frank Pasley, guitar; Willie Jackson, alto, soprano, and baritone sax; James Jackson, tenor sax; Peppy Prince, drums; and Eddie Davis, bass.

BIG NAME STARS ON TOUR WITH TOP SHOW OF '51

By FLOESIE THOMPSON
TULSA, Okla. (ANP) — Blending in an extravagant show of music and comedy are 49 talented entertainers who are packing record crowds as they tour the country with "The Biggest Show of '51."

A crowd of 4,000 were present when the show was given at the Coliseum in Tulsa last week.

The incomparable Duke Ellington is suave and warming as the Master of Ceremonies.

Sarah Vaughn sings her latest recording, "I Ran All the Way Home," as well as many other songs.

King Cole Trio renders some of the songs that brought them worldwide fame as well as recent hits.

Other stars in the cast are the Marie Bryant girls, Pegleg Bates, Jackson and Patterson, Stump and Stumpy and Timmie Rodgers.

The whole production is under the management of Charles Carpenter, who handles a weekly payroll of $21,000. This is the first time a show of such a large scale has been headed by a Negro manager.

Carpenter, a Chicago resident, formerly of New York, is not now in the show business. He managed Earl Hines band before World War II.

Much discussed at the moment in the final vote and decision by Musicians' Local 767 here to merge into the much larger and more powerful white Local No. 47. Conditions will be better for the Negro music makers, and they will get much more work in motion pictures and regular bookings.

All Hollywood awaits the return of Eric Johnston to his post here, as head of the Motion Picture Producers Association. His is the guiding hand that is a safe guarantee for the welfare of the colored players as well as the whites, because he is known to be the soul of impartiality and fairness.

Sol Lesser's "Tarzan" wound up at the RKO-Pathe lot, after several weeks of day and night shooting.

Lionel Hampton played his "newell" dance as he presented his huge 33-member company at the Shrine auditorium.

North Vernon WSCS In Program

NORTH VERNON—The Women's Society of Christian Service of Second Methodist Church, sponsored a program at the church on Sunday afternoon of last week in observance of the week of prayer and self-denial.

Mesdames Edward Staten and William Staten were hostesses to a farewell Halloween party recently honoring Anthony Staten, who enlisted in the Air Force. He left on Thursday morning of last week for San Antonio, Tex.

Mrs. Louise Malone Braxton, well-known woman bass singer, and Mrs. Martha Cheer were overnight guests of Mrs. Susie Shelton and family last week. Mrs. Shelton assisted Mrs. Braxton in a program at Blotcher on Wednesday night of last week.

Mrs. Carrie Colbert was in Indianapolis last week to take treatments at the Riley hospital. While there she was guest of Mrs. Dorothy Gardener.

Mrs. Pearl Sadler is still on the sick list, although not confined to her bed.

Mrs. Lucy Staten and three daughters visited friends at Mitchell over the week-end.

Mrs. Susie Shelton has received word from her son, William, stating he has received another stripe while awaiting overseas orders at MacDill Air Field Base, Fla.

Mesdames Juanita Staten and Ada Colbert spent the week-end at Franklin, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Dixon entertained as Sunday dinner guests Mrs. Josephine Colbert and her son, Robert, and grandson, Terry, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Edmonds and family.

Mrs. Hazel Bolden and daughter, Betty, were at Columbus last Saturday on a shopping tour. While there they were guests of Raymond Burris.

Franklin Group Heard On Radio

FRANKLIN—The Gospel Harmonizers are being heard on the radio again, broadcasting on the Station WSCI, Columbus, each Sunday morning from 10 to 10:15. Members of the organization are Leonard Danciger, manager; Homer Pruitt, president; and Ralph Burse and Buford Van-Cleve, all of Franklin, and Roy Litzey and H. Smith, Columbus.

Rockport Church Has Anniversary

ROCKPORT—Smithfield Baptist Church has just closed a successful observance of its 88th anniversary. Guest speaker all day on Sunday, November 4, was Rev. W. Moore, who was accompanied by two of his singing groups. Dinner was served. The observance was considered the most successful ever held by the church, which is currently installin ga ney mur-nace.

Louis Taylor, a deacon at the church, became very ill during Sunday school last Sunday morning. Ben. Crawley, another deacon at the church, remains ill.

Mrs. Armentra Ellis and Miss Emma Lou Crawley spent the week-end in Indianapolis. Mrs. Ruth Young accompanied them to Indianapolis, then she and her children went on to Detroit after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Crawley.

Mrs. Arting McAtee and Miss Johnnie McAtee are still very ill.

CHEER UP!

OERTEL BREWING COMPANY, INCORPORATED, LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

How does your present brand compare with Calvert's taste?

Whiskies differ in smoothness, lightness... in freedom from bite, burn and sting. Only by comparing them can you pick the best brand for you to buy.

BE YOUR OWN WHISKEY EXPERT!

So why not make a simple 60-second taste test between Calvert and your present brand? We are confident you will prefer the smoother, mellower Calvert taste. But if you still prefer your present brand, stick with it. Fair enough?

Calvert Challenges Comparison
Make this taste test today

JUST ASK A FRIEND or barman to pour about 1/4 oz. of Calvert into a glass, and the same amount of your present brand into another —without telling you which is which. Compare each brand for smoothness, flavor, freedom from bite, burn or sting. Then pick the one that really tastes better.

It's smart to switch to Calvert

SWEETEN STOMACH TO SWEETEN CHILD

When constipation occasionally upsets little stomachs, children often act up, or sulk, because they feel miserable, can't eat or sleep right. That's why wise mothers give Syrup of Black-Draught whenever youngsters suffer digestive upset from constipation. Its wonderful laxative action can help sweeten such sour stomachs, too! Then how dispositions improve! Laxative-Stomach Sweetener Works Overnight! Syrup of Black-Draught Laxative honey-sweet, so children take it eagerly. Made of nature's pure vegetable herbs—acts thoroughly, but gently. Given at bedtime, brings comforting relief in morning—thus helps sweeten sour stomachs, too. Youngsters virtually sleep away these constipation worries! Next day feel good, laugh and play! No wonder 17,000,000 bottles sold. Get Syrup of Black-Draught from druggists. Works wonders for a child's good nature!

ADULTS: For constipation try regular Black-Draught, Laxative-Stomach Sweetener, famous since 1840. Familiar Powder, Granulated or convenient new Tablet form.

BRODA L. GORTON

GORTON—In loving memory of our dear son and brother Broda L. Gorton, who passed away November 17, 1949.

The one God gave and then took from us, Is at Peace in the Isle of the Blest, And even while bitter tears fall dear, We know God in His wisdom knew best.

Lila Warfield, Mother, Edna Mae Johnson, Sister, James Gorton, Brother.

WILLIAM DEE JORDAN

JORDAN—In loving memory of my dear husband, William Dee Jordan, who passed away November 19, 1950.

I will never lose sweet memories Of the one I love so much, God gave me strength to face it, And courage to stand the blow, But what it meant to lose him, No one will ever know.

The flowers that lie upon your grave, May wither and decay, But the love I have for you dear, Will never fade away.

Mrs. Marie Pearl Jordan, Wife.

THEY WILL BE SORRY

It's very nice for friends to call When I am not even sick at all, They need not wait until I am dead.

Before some cheering word is said, Some day you know I'm sure to die, Then they will be sorry maybe cry.

Especially if they fail to call When I am not even sick at all, Mrs. Marie Pearl Jordan.

Card of Thanks

STONE—I wish to thank the many friends for their kindness and sympathy shown during the passing of Mr. Emsdell S. Stone. I especially thank Patton Funeral Home, those who sent floral offerings and all who assisted in any way during his passing. Mrs. Sophia H. Stone, Wife, 748 Aubert Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

APPRECIATION

With deepest appreciation and gratitude to my many friends for cards, contributions, blood donors, flowers, the auxiliaries of Bethany Baptist Church, Rev. R. F. Gregory of Beulah Baptist Church and members and to each and every one who were so kind to me during my illness. Your many kindnesses helped my speedy recovery. May God bless all of you. Mrs. Jessie Brown, 974 Burdsal Parkway.

Attucks Drops Finale to Howe

By JAMES WESTMORELAND

Crispus Attucks' earnest but undermanned football team wound up a losing season by dropping the final contest to Howe last week, 32-0. Strangely for an Attucks Homecoming, the game was at Howe. The Tigers played inspired football through the first half, holding the favored Hornets in a scoreless tie. But after the intermission Bob Milli counted for Howe and Leroy Thompson ran the conversion to make it 7-0 entering the final period. Then the sky caved in, with the Hornets scoring four more touchdowns and a point.
